LABOR CABINET SURVIVES CRISIS

Motion to Reduce Salary of Tom Shaw Rejected in the House of Commons by Vote of 300 to 252

TECHNICAL METHOD TO EXPRESS DISAPPROVAL

Mr. Lloyd George Was Absent From Session, But Mr. Asquith Announces Liberal Party's Support

LONDON, May 29.—By what may be, under the circumstances, regarded as the quite comfortable majority of 48, the Labor Government tonight in the House of Commons again succeeded in resisting an attack on its existence, when Sir William Joynson-Hicks' motion to reduce the salary of the Labor Minister, Tom Shaw, by £100, was rejected after a long debate.

The motion was merely a technical way of expressing disapproval of the Government's policy respecting unemployment. A similar motion was talked out in the House recently. Prior to the recording of the vote Premier MacDonald declared that in the event of a Government defeat, Labor would go before the country in a general election.

Vote Stands 300 to 252

On division, the vote stood 300 to 252 in the Government's favor, H. H. Asquith, the Liberal leader, having announced that his party would not vote against the Government.

There were lively scenes of jubilation when the vote became known, and shouts of "Where is Lloyd George?"

Mr. Lloyd George attended the Liberal meeting to decide upon what action should be taken on the vote, but had not returned to the House when Mr. Asquith announced the decision of his party, and his absence provoked gossip of a split among the Liberals.

The figures of the division show that 100 Liberals voted with the Government and thirty abstained from voting.

No doubt exists among well informed political observers that the Conservative wing of the parliamentary opposition is quite ready to vote the Government out of office at any moment.

This, however, is not the state of affairs in the Liberal wing, because in the recent by-election the Liberal candidates fared so badly that the party does not dare to risk an appeal to the country at the present moment. This situation explains the proceedings in the House today.

Premier Speaks

Premier MacDonald, in defending his Labor Minister, did not trouble to outline any real programme of reforms in any greater detail than he has already done in previous speeches.

He asserted that the Conservatives only wanted another general election. He reiterated that it was impossible for any Government in the brief space of four months to have carried out large productive schemes of electrification, afforestation, and so on, but said he would test the sincerity of the opposition by introducing a bill to take compulsory powers for afforestation. Finally the Prime Minister declared he would treat the vote as a question of confidence, and would be quite ready to meet his opponents on the platforms of the country.

No sooner had the Prime Minister spoken than the Liberals all left the House to hold a consultation, with the result that former Premier Asquith, the Liberal leader, came back and, amid ironical cheers from the Conservatives, made a speech in which he said he had found additional knowledge of the Government's intentions from Mr. MacDonald's speech. He declared his willingness to give the Government "more time to turn around."

MORE EXPLOSIONS NEAR BUCHAREST

STOCK OF AMMUNITION IS NOT YET EXHAUSTED

Impossible to Ascertain Quantity Yet Unconsumed—King Ferdinand Has Narrow Escape

LONDON, May 29.—A dispatch from The Daily Mail's correspondent at Bucharest, who earlier intimated that the explosions had ceased in consequence of exhaustion of the stock of ammunition, says they were resumed at 8 o'clock last night, and that owing to the impossibility of approaching the scene it was difficult to estimate when the explosives will be completely consumed. Dense smoke, he adds, hangs over the capital.

Earlier dispatches told of exploding shells falling in the courtyard of the royal palace, a mile from the depot, forcing the occupants, the former King and Queen of Greece, to flee to the city.

King's Narrow Escape

King Ferdinand of Roumania is reported by the Bucharest correspondent of The Daily Express to have narrowly escaped death during the prolonged series of explosions. A shell fell and exploded on the spot where the King had been standing.

Many of the residents in the western part of Bucharest, where the explosions were felt most severely and where numerous buildings were damaged, fled to the eastern section. The ceiling of the Central Exchange collapsed.

GIFT RESTORES ROOF OF RHEIMS GREAT CATHEDRAL

PARIS, May 29.—John D. Rockefeller, jr., has placed $1,000,000 at the disposal of a Franco-American commission for the purpose of reconstructing the roof of the Rheims Cathedral destroyed by the Germans in the world war, and restoring and beautifying the fountains and gardens at Versailles and Fontainebleau. Mr. Rockefeller is moved to make this gift because, as he said in a letter to Premier Poincare dated May 3, "among the treasures of which France is custodian are some which belong to the patrimony of all nations, for their influence is a source of inspiration of universal art."

FIREHALL ISSUE STILL LIVE ONE

SPECIAL MEETING OF COUNCIL TO BE HELD TODAY

Further Efforts to Have Firemen Recede From Stand Said to Have Failed

Eleventh-hour efforts to ward off the closing of the Victoria West firehall are being made. Several aldermen met the firemen yesterday to again try to reach an agreement and this afternoon a special meeting of the City Council is being held in regard to the fire department situation.

"If the Victoria West firehall is closed on Sunday as announced, the fire insurance rates will go up on Monday in accordance with what we have already stated," Mr. Douglas McGregor, local secretary of the B.C. Fire Underwriters' Association, told The Colonist yesterday. "I hope that the city will yet see its way clear to make some different settlement of the question which it is facing."

Aldermen Todd, Sargent and Ker met representatives of the firemen yesterday morning in an endeavor to have them recede from their demand that the hours of the Labor Act be fully enforced here. It was suggested by the aldermen that the men take one day off every fortnight, instead of one day off in seven, but it is understood that this compromise was not agreed to.

Mayor Hayward called a special meeting of the council for 2:30 this afternoon on the request of a number of aldermen to deal with the fire department issue. Fire Chief Vernon Stewart has announced his intention of closing the Victoria West firehall in accordance with council instructions. The prospect of increased insurance rates is what is causing the last-minute efforts to stave off this action.

It is understood that at least one alderman who cannot be accused of siding with the firemen will endeavor today to have the council hire the extra men needed if a hall is not closed.

Victoria West residents will be on hand at the meeting this afternoon to protest against the closing of the Victoria West hall which should the opportunity offer.

A mass meeting is to be held in Songhees Park tonight at 7:30 o'clock in regard to the proposal to close the Victoria West hall. The Victoria West Brotherhood, under whose auspices the gathering is being held, wishes it understood that it is not backing the firemen but is merely protecting the rights of Victoria West.

FREIGHT RATES A RED HERRING

SAYS MATTER OF REDUCTIONS NOT POLITICAL ISSUE

Mr. H. B. Robertson, K.C., Scores Oliver Regime—Mr. Coventry Stands by Figures

"John Oliver cannot more easily, nor is he more likely than anyone else to secure a reduction in freight rates," declared Mr. Harold B. Robertson, K. C., last night in Marigold Hall, where he addressed a meeting in the interests of Hon. T. G. Coventry, Conservative candidate in Saanich. "This matter of freight rates is not a political issue," he said. "Applications for a reduction in freight rates come before the Board of Railroad Commissioners, which is a court, and they will judge on the merits of the cases, irrespective of who may be Premier or what party is in power in British Columbia. A Conservative, Provincial or Socialist government here would have just as much chance to obtain freight rates reduction as a Liberal government, providing that their demands for same are considered worthy of being granted," declared Mr. Robertson.

Mr. Robertson said Liberal speakers had stated that conditions in British Columbia were prosperous, while at the same time young men were leaving the Province owing to being unable to find positions. There must be some reason for such extraordinary condition of affairs. The Liberals pointed to the financial indebtedness left by the Conservatives government, and while admitting that the Pacific Great Eastern Railway formed a small part of it, he contended that the Province wouldn't be in the position today that it is if the Liberals had properly handled this railroad matter since they assumed office.

"If the Oliver government had made Foley, Welch & Stewart, P.G.E. contractors, live up to their contract in the construction of that road, the railroad contractors would today be paying interest on twenty million dollars, instead of the people. The government has been advised by experts to give up the railroad, and if they do so, while there would be a loss of the total cost, less what could be salvaged, a stop on the loss on operation would be effected. But the government does not say whether it is going to continue the line on to Fort George. It has made no declaration of policy. It does not dare tell you what it is going to do. It does, however, draw a red herring across

Chief Justice Hunter Hears of Lobbyists' Work

Former Member of Parliament Sues Mr. John J. Coughlan, Jr., for $5,000, Services in Connection With Securing Change in Federal Drydock Contract—Mr. James Anderson on Witness Stand Declares He Received $5,000 and His Wife $25,000

VANCOUVER, May 29.—How influence is exerted by lobbyists at Ottawa was explained to Chief Justice Hunter today when the trial resumed in Supreme Court of Herbert S. Clements vs. John J. Coughan, jr. Mr. Clements, a former M.P., claims $5,000 commission for services in connection with the sale in 1921 to A. Wallace Shipyards Company of Mr. Coughlan's interest in a Dominion subsidy contract for a drydock on Burrard Inlet. The evidence was that the go-betweens were James Anderson and his wife, Amanda, also L. A. Rostein and Mr. Clements.

Mr. Anderson stated in the witness stand that he and his wife were to use their influence at Ottawa to secure a change of the proposed undertaking from a graving dock to a floating dock. They were also to arrange for the transfer of the subsidy from the Coughlan interests to the Wallace Company. If successful they were to be paid.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson were subsequently paid $30,000 by Mr. Coughlan, of which $25,000 was Mrs. Anderson's portion.

Mr. Clements was invited to assist, it was stated in evidence, because he had been friendly disposed to the Wallace interests and the Coughlan representatives thought his influence would be valuable.

The trial is proceeding.

PUBLIC APPEAL MADE BY MAYOR

FUNDS FOR FLEET ENTERTAINMENT BADLY NEEDED

His Worship Stresses Importance of Visit of Ships of Special Service Squadron to This Port

An appeal to the citizens to contribute funds wherewith to provide entertainment for the men of the British Special Service Squadron in a manner befitting the outstanding occasion is made by Mayor Hayward in a statement made public yesterday. It reads:

At a public meeting held in the City Hall on Wednesday evening, I was requested to make an appeal through the press to the general public, asking for funds to assist in entertaining the personnel of the British Special Service Squadron on the occasion of their visit to the city in June.

It is estimated that to carry out any programme of entertainment at all fitting to this important event and to provide something which will always be a pleasant recollection to the men of the fleet, some $15,000 is required, and at the present time the amount at the disposal of the committee is only $4,000.

I hope that our citizens will make a generous response to this appeal, as it is only on very rare occasions that we are privileged to receive a visit from such a powerful squadron of the British Navy as the present one. It might be mentioned that Victoria is the only port in Canada which is being visited by the whole of the squadron.

Subscriptions can be handed in to the office of The Daily Colonist or Daily Times, and for greater convenience it is hoped that lists will be opened in the various banks and hotels of the city.

DECODING DELAYS JAPAN'S PROTEST

TOKIO'S VIEWS ON U.S. EXCLUSION LAW REACHES CAPITAL

Embassy Officials Busy Translating Document, But No Appointment Made for Presentation

WASHINGTON, May 29.—A formal communication from the Japanese Government protesting against the exclusion section of the new immigration law, reached the Japanese Embassy here today for transmission to Secretary Hughes. Decoding occupied embassy officials throughout the day and the document has not been presented at the State Department, nor had any appointment been made with the Secretary for Ambassador Hanihara when the department closed for the day to reopen Saturday. The only information thus far available as to the form and substance of the Japanese communication is that carried in press dispatches, which have reported that the Tokio Government regards the exclusion provision as "discriminatory" and in violation of a commercial treaty.

Twenty-Six Indicted

CHICAGO, May 29.—Twenty six persons were indicted by the Federal grand jury today in connection with the removal from the Sibley bonded warehouse several months ago of 5,000 cases of liquor valued at more than $1,000,000 on forged government permits.

CITY WILL HAVE MANY CANDIDATES

MR. C. L. HARRISON WITHDRAWS AT ELEVENTH HOUR

Seventeen Citizens Likely to Seek Suffrages of Fellow Victorians by Latest Forecast

Mr. Claude L. Harrison, city prosecutor, and suggested as a running mate for Dr. Clem Davies as an independent candidate for Victoria City, has definitely withdrawn his name, it was learned yesterday, on the eve of official nomination day. Nominations must be in the hands of Mr. P. W. Marchant, returning officer for Victoria, by 1 o'clock p.m. today. Mr. Marchant will receive the nominations in the sheriff's office at the Court House, Bastion Square.

Mr. Harrison, who left for a short trip to California last week, left nomination papers in the hands of a personal friend. Yesterday, it was learned, telegraphic instructions were received that Mr. Harrison's name was not to be put in.

The decision of Dr. Davies not to be a candidate is said to be the principal reason for Mr. Harrison's withdrawal.

Seventeen May Run

Tentative forecasts of the number of candidates to appear on the Victoria election ballots, from all sources of information available last night, did not exceed seventeen. Conservatives, Liberals and Provincials have each the full quota of four candidates on the ticket. The Federal Labor Party has three. Mr. George Oliver is regarded as certain to run as an independent. The seventeenth man in the field may be Mr. Joseph North, who yesterday obtained nomination blanks from Mr. Marchant.

Mr. N. W. Whittaker, returning officer for Saanich riding, will receive nominations for that constituency at the Municipal Hall, Royal Oak, today. Nominations for Esquimalt will be received at the Esquimalt Municipal Hall by Mr. H. Hearns.

The Provincial party is first in the field here with its official nominations. Mr. Andrew Wright's papers were filed on Wednesday, and yesterday Mr. Marchant received the nominations of the other three candidates of the party, Aldermen Todd and Woodward and Mr. A. G. Smith. The papers show the following endorsements:

SMITH, ALEXANDER GORDON, 2314 Shelbourne Street, Victoria City, teacher; proposed by Charles Flick, seconded by Harry S. Thain.

Assenting to the nomination—Rose Semple, Archibald A. Watt, I. M. Galtskell, A. R. M. Knights-Baynor, D. S. Tait, R. B. Punnett, Henry Howard, J. C. Rivers, Andrew Wright, S. R. ITALY'S ROYAL PAIR DEPARTS

King Victor Emmanuel and Queen Helena Bid Adieu to Great Britain's Sovereigns and Family

CROWDS CHEER THE DISTINGUISHED PARTY

London's "Little Italy" Given Opportunity to Greet Heads of the Country of Their Nativity

LONDON, May 29.—The departure of the Italian sovereigns for Rome this evening was the occasion for great demonstrations, not only by the Italian colony, but by the general public. Large crowds gathered to cheer King Victor Emmanuel, Queen Helena, the Prince of Piedmont and Princess Mafalda as they left Buckingham Palace, and at Victoria station, where members of the British Royal family gathered to bid them farewell.

The British party at the station included King George, Queen Mary, the Prince of Wales, the Duke of York, Prince Henry, Prince George, Princess Beatrice and Princess Louise.

Victoria Platform Decorated

The platform from which the Italian sovereigns departed was carpeted and decorated with red and white roses and the national flags of Italy and Great Britain. A detachment of 100 uniformed Fascisti was drawn up in double rank on the platform as a guard of honor.

Residents of London's "little Italy," in the East End of the city, were given an opportunity this afternoon to greet almost personally the royal personages of the country of their nativity. King Victor Emmanuel, Queen Helena, the Prince of Piedmont and Princess Malafda visited the Italian quarter, and drove to the Italian church, where they attended high mass, and to the Italian hospital, where they spoke to each of the patients. They were welcomed in their drive by crowds of persons who cheered enthusiastically in English and Italian.

LAUGHTER GREETS MINISTER'S REASON

PREPARING ADMIRALTY YACHT FOR CRUISE

Secretary Ammon Attempts to Appease Followers by Pointing Out Economy of Step

LONDON, May 29.—A statement made in the House today by Charles Ammon, Parliamentary Secretary to the Admiralty, in reply to a question that the Admiralty yacht Enchantress was to be put in commission again in ten days in order to allow the Board of Admiralty officially attend the review of the fleet in July and to inspect the ships, led to a torrent of questions being asked. George Lansbury, Labor member, wanted to know why the Labor Government required any yacht which the coalition had laid up.

Secretary Ammon replied that it was not the Government but the Admiralty that required the yacht. He mentioned that the cost involved in recommissioning the Enchantress would be £7,000. Neil Maclean, Labor, asked whether this money could not be put to better use in other ways. Mr. Ammon said it would be very much cheaper to use the Enchantress for the purpose mentioned than if the members of the Admiralty Board attended the review by other means.

This explanation was received with laughter.

CONTEMPLATE DRY TREATY WITH STATES

Washington Hears Rumors of Secret Pact About Consummated With Dominion of Canada

WASHINGTON, May 29.—A treaty relating to prohibition enforcement is said here to be the subject of negotiations between the Governments of Canada and the United States. The State Department officials have so far been silent with regard to the matter, but there is high authority for the statement that an agreement of some sort is contemplated.

Since Canada recently signed the British-American treaty with relation to search of ships an hour's sail from the coasts of the United States, it is presumed that the contemplated treaty has reference to other phases of the dry lay enforcement problem.

OTTAWA, May 29.—The Department of External Affairs tonight declined to discuss the report from Washington that negotiations were under way between the Canadian and United States Governments to conclude a separate treaty on rum running. Officials of that department neither confirm nor deny the rumor, but contented themselves with stating that they have nothing to say about it.

$90,000 Damage Done By Fire in Quebec

GRACEFIELD, Que., May 29.—Three hotels were burnt, the town hall destroyed and a dozen families made homeless after an all-night fire which destroyed a large portion of this town before it was brought under control this morning. The damage is estimated at $50,000.

LORD ULLSWATER

Who is representing Great Britain at the Emigration and Immigration Conference being held in Rome. Canada is not represented because, it is reported, of Italy's policy of not allowing Canada to select emigrants to Canada before their embarkation. It has been the policy of Italy to have Canada indicate the class of emigrants she desires and to allow the Italian Government to choose them.

Spectacles Lead To Lad's Arrest At Chicago

CHICAGO, May 30.—Nathan Leopold, jr., nineteen-year-old son of a millionaire box manufacturer, was taken into custody for questioning early this morning, after records of an optical company revealed that spectacles found near the body of fourteen-year-old Robert Franks, kidnappers' victim, had been sold to him. Young Leopold, a college student, said that he had visited the spot where the glasses were found possibly as many as fifty times with classes in ornithology. "Maybe they are, but I don't think so," he replied when asked if he owned the spectacles, according to an announcement by Robert E. Crowe, state's attorney.

RESENTS TABBING AS DISGRACEFUL

SIR B. HARTWELL AGGRIEVED AT PREMIER'S EPITHET

Doughty Knight Deems Proposal Legitimate to Form Company to Smuggle Liquor to U.S.

LONDON, May 29.—Lt.-Col. Sir Broderick Hartwell is aggrieved at Premier MacDonald's reference in the House of Commons, to his activities as a "disgraceful blot," according to The Evening Standard, which quotes him in an interview as saying: "I feel hurt as being referred to as if I were a bootlegger or a smuggler."

The question came up in the House after a discussion of the advertisements and activities of Sir Broderick, who, it is said, has been inviting contributions to a business run by him for the purpose of smuggling alcoholic liquors into the United States, guaranteeing the investors a profit of twenty per cent.

Twenty Per Cent Profit

"I issued an invitation to the public," Sir Broderick said, "to contribute capital for the purchase of wines and spirits for export to a rendevous twenty miles off the United States coast."

Sir Broderick declared that the United States demand for spirits actually existed and that many countries were competing for the trade.

"What I am doing is a feasible," he declared. "Why should I be referred to as a disgraceful blot for trying to meet this demand by a straight trading proposition?" Meanwhile, yesterday's discussion of the rum-running question was resumed today in the House of Commons. Several members had measures against continuance of the rum traffic. Lady Astor asked: "Is it not an international scandal of a grave character?"

OVERSEAS BISLEY MATCH ARRANGED

ANNOUNCEMENT IS MADE AT ANNUAL MEETING

Lord Cheylesmore Announces Record Number of Competitors in Sight for This Year's Meeting

LONDON, May 29.—Lord Cheylesmore, presiding today at the annual meeting of the National Rifle Association, announced a new Bisley competition, "the overseas match," which will be open to British subjects resident overseas. This match was introduced in view of the large number of visitors at Bisley annually from the Dominions. The prize list will total £100, and no entrance fee will be charged.

Lord Cheylesmore mentioned that there would be a record number of competitors at Bisley this year, including representative teams from Canada, South Africa, India, Rhodesia, Natal, Gold Coast and Malay. He said the Australians, who are holders of the Empire trophy, had again waived the right to have the challenge match shot in Australia and were showing good sportsmanship in bringing the trophy to be contested for in Britain.

It is announced that the Prince of Wales has consented to present the prizes at Bisley this year.

Former Justice of Peace Charged With Larceny

SASKATOON, May 29.—R. Donovan, former justice of the peace at Torkton, has been admitted to bail in $3,000 on charges laid by the Federal Department of Finance for alleged misappropriation of $1,253.55, fines and costs collected by him under the Inland Revenue Act from operators of illicit stills.

OTTAWA PROBES COSTLY AFFAIRS

One Million Dollars Estimate of Cabinet's Probable Expenditure on Commissions During Term of Office

HOTEL SCRIBE BLUNDER REQUIRES INVESTIGATION

Cowardly Attack on Former Veterinary Head Subject of Regret by All Parties at Ottawa

OTTAWA, May 29. — In the use of Royal Commissions for patronage and also to evade governmental responsibility, the King Government has made a costly record. In opposition, Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King was most emphatic in his denunciation of Royal Commissions, while in power he has been more guilty of this practice than any other Premier. The expenditure has been enormous, while the accomplishment has been confined to rewarding political workers.

Among the numerous commissions appointed, and many of them still draining the treasury, with cost to date, are:

Pulpwood	$ 48,000
Cape Breton Conditions	14,919
Mohawk-Chippawa Indians	15,060
Revising Statutes	3,820
B. C. Fisheries	10,700
War Claims	22,272
Grand Trunk Gratuities	4,900
Lake Grain Rates	99,555
Soldiers' Re-establishment	101,089
Expended to date	$320,315

Four of these commissions—Pulpwood, Revision of Statutes, War Claims and Civil Re-establishment—are still in existance, and their enormous expenditure continues. The Government has in contemplation the appointment of at least three other Royal Commissions. Nor does the above include the Home Bank Commission, which will cost at least $100,000. It can be safely estimated that if the King Government remains in office for the whole parliamentary tarm, $1,000,000 will have been spent on abortive commissions. The party favorites are waxing fat, while the people are carrying the enormous tax burden.

Hotel Scrube Blunder

An inquiry was asked into the Hotel Scribe, "the million-dollar deposit," and other suspicious Canadian National Railway transactions. If inquiry into Canadian National expenditure is burked by the Government, then Canada embarks on the unprecedented policy of placing in the hands of one man, a paid employee, $200,000,000 annually to expend without any check, penalty or independent accounting. It is a most preposterous policy that Hon. George

PREMIER SMUTS REFUSED HEARING

ROWDYISM RAMPANT IN CAPE ELECTIONS

Nationalist and Labor Leaders Without Avail Appeal to Their Followers to Play Fair

CAPETOWN, May 29.—The feature of the campaign in the Rand has been the organized rowdyism and hooliganism at the meeting of the South African (Government) Party, reminiscent of the turbulent days prior to the Rand revolt in March, 1922.

The worst instance of rowdyism was at Benzoni, where H. Ments, Minister of Defence, was prevented from speaking at a meeting and was threatened with violence, and finally left the meeting on the advice of a Labor leader.

There have been faint reports of this violence in other parts of the country, but Premier Smuts, who is making a tour of the Union, has generally been accorded a good hearing at his meetings.

Refused Hearing

The most notable exception to this was at Bloemfontein last night. The Premier and J. W. Jagger, Minister of Railways and Harbors, were advertised to speak, but the demonstration of hostility was so great that Premier Smuts was unable to say a word. All efforts to secure order proved unavailing, and the Premier, who maintained apparent good humor throughout, finally left the hall without speaking.

Patrick Duncan, Minister of the Interior, was unable to speak at a meeting at Rondebosch yesterday owing to an uproar that lasted throughout the meeting.

Stones Thrown

He was able, however, to answer a few questions. Stones were thrown at his automobile as he entered it and drove off.

Appeals are being made by prominent Nationalists and Laborites to their supporters to give their opponents a fair hearing at the political meetings, but these are being disregarded.

The Cape Times declares that should this appeal fail the law-abiding people of the Peninsula will be compelled to take measures of self-defence against the outrages being perpetrated at the meetings of the Government supporters. If this becomes necessary, The Times says, the outraged people may be trusted to take measures that will be effective.

BRITISH COAL MINERS ACCEPT AGREEMENT

Long Drawn Out Dispute as to the Terms Arranged by the Men's Delegates Terminates

LONDON, May 29.—The prolonged dispute over the question of the coal miners' wages was definitely settled today when a full conference of the miners' delegates voted 473 to 311 to accept the terms of the agreement reached by the miners' federation representatives with the owners on May 15.

The agreement which was reached subject to approval of the full delegation conference of the miners with a recommendation from the federation officials for such approval, provides that the standard of profits in the industry shall consist of a sum equal to 15 per cent of standard wages. The surplus remaining after deducting from the proceeds the cost of standard wages costs, other than wages and standard profits, is to be divided between wages and profits in the proportion of 83 per cent to wages and 12 per cent to profits.

In the arrangement which the new agreement supplants, the standard of profits was reckoned at 17 per cent of wages and the profits divided in the ratio of 83 and 17 per cent.

DOCTORS DIFFER AS TO SLEEPING SICKNESS

Distinguished Medical Authority Contradicts Statement of British Minister of Health

LONDON, May 29.—The contention that sleeping sickness is not connected with influenza is being strongly combatted by some physicians, whose opinions are featured in the newspapers.

Among them is Dr. W. M. Crofton, lecturer on pathology at the University College, Dublin, who maintains that the unquestionable cause of the sickness is infection of the brain by the influenza bacillus. He says this is absolutely proven by the fact that the patient always reacts to the vaccine of influenza bacillus, and claims that dramatic cures by this vaccine treatment have been worked.

The Daily Mail prints an article in support of the theory, written by an anonymous "distinguished medical authority," and editorially calls upon the Minister of Health and the medical profession to take notice.

Great French Statesman Passes Away at Paris

Pierre Paul Chambon, Aged 81, Won Fame in Connection With Realization of the Entente Cordiale Early in Present Century When King Edward VII Undertook to Readjust the Equilibrium of Europe to Offset Triple Alliance

PARIS, May 29.—Pierre Paul Cambon, former French Ambassador to Great Britain, died at his home here last night.

Pierre Paul Cambon, eminent French statesman and diplomat, won international fame in early days of the present century for his efforts in behalf of the Anglo-French agreement of April 8, 1904, when the powerful and far-reaching Entente Cordiale was born.

Paul Cambon was one of three brothers, all of whom were conspicuous in French diplomatic affairs at the same time. Jules Cambon, later the best known of the three, was Ambassador to the United States; Paul was accredited to London, and the third brother was in the similar post at Constantinople.

Paul Cambon was born January 20, 1843. He was called to the Parisian bar some twenty years later, and after ten years of administrative work in various government departments was transferred to the diplomatic service and appointed Minister Plenipotentiary at Tunis; in 1886 he became French Ambassador to Spain, and two years later went to Constantinople in the same capacity. In 1898 he presented his credentials as Ambassador to Great Britain.

A Critical Stage

He was still in London when, six years later, the relations between Great Britain and France had reached a critical stage over the Faschoda incident in Egypt.

King Edward VII, working carefully and secretly, had launched his programme to readjust Europe's equilibrium, and bring Britain, France and Russia together as a means of offsetting the powerful Triple Alliance of Germany, Austria and Italy. The late Theophile Delcasse represented France in the treaty negotiations, while the British interests were looked after by Lord Lansdowne.

Paul Cambon acted as intermediary during the negotiations, and it was largely through him that the many difficulties were ironed out. The announcement that an agreement had been reached came suddenly late in 1904 and astounded the entire world.

The basis of the treaty provided for the French surrender to Great Britain of certain long standing rights in Egypt, while Britain conceded that France occupied a privileged position in Morocco. Aside from settling these cardinal points the treaty also wound up many other matters of controversy between the two nations.

Entente Cordiale

The treaty was hailed as the "Entente Cordiale," or the vehicle by which France and Britain were brought together into close political alliance. Hardly less important to Europe was the fact that Russia came indirectly into the agreement through her previously existing alliance with France, hence King Edward's original purpose of uniting the three ocuntries through such a treaty was accomplished.

Mr. Cambon negotiated and signed the final draft after Delcasse and Lansdowne had agreed upon the essential terms. While its importance was not underestimated even at that time, there were perhaps none who foresaw the tremendous effect the Entente Cordiale would have ten years later, when the World War swept over Europe.

M. Cambon came prominently to the front in 1914 and played an important part in frustrating the efforts of Germany to separate France and Great Britain on the eve of the great struggle. He resigned his post in November, 1920.

TACOMA SEMINARY OPENS NEXT TERM IN NEW BUILDING

TACOMA, Wash., May 30.—Graduation of the class of 1924 of the Annie Wright Seminary, Tacoma, will mark the close of the old buildings which have been in use since the school was founded in 1884. When school is resumed in September it will be in the entirely new $500,000 buildings now nearing completion. The closing of the old buildings will bring many recollections among women all over the West who have been students at the seminary during its forty years' existence.

The new buildings will be complete and will embody the latest ideas incorporated in the most modern schools. Ten acres overlooking Puget Sound and adjoining one of Tacoma's finest residential sections was chosen as the seminary site. Surrounding the buildings will be a lovely wooded campus. A sports field will be one of its features.

The new Annie Wright Seminary will accommodate 75 resident and 150 day pupils when it opens in September.

OTTAWA DECLINES TO ENLARGE PROGRAMME

Federal Government Will Provide Two Smoking Concerts in Vancouver for Visiting Fleet

VANCOUVER, May 29.—Plans of the civic committee for the reception to the special service squadron of the British Fleet here next month were given somewhat of a jolt this morning when wires were received from Ottawa that the Dominion Government would accept no responsibility for plans for the entertainment of the fleet other than the two smoking concerts which it had previously agreed to give the men at Vancouver.

It had been the understanding of the committee that the Federal authorities would give 240 men and 40 officers a trip to the interior as far east as Winnipeg. All points between Vancouver and Winnipeg were greatly interested in this proposal, and were preparing welcomes, but the wire from Ottawa today stated that the government recognized no responsibility in this connection.

The Provincial Government has made a grant of $2,500 towards the reception, and the Vancouver city council has voted $6,000.

BUILD CONTINENT LIGHTED AIRWAY

Six Hundred Miles to Be Added to Thousand Completed for the Air Mail Service

WASHINGTON, May 29.—The lighted airway for night flying on the air mail service's transcontinental route will be extended at both the eastern and western ends, adding 600 miles to the 1,000 already lighted. It is announced by the Postoffice Department. The apparatus will be in working order by July 1, when the first air mail will be started across the country from both the Atlantic and Pacific.

The lighted airway for night flying will be extended for the 1,600-mile stretch from Cleveland to Rock Springs, Wyo. The present lighting systems extend from Chicago to Cheyenne, Wyo.

CIRCUS ARRIVES

PORT ALBERNI, May 29.—Conklin & Garrett's All-Canadian Show arrived in the city by special train on Sunday afternoon and erected tents and apparatus on Kingsway yesterday. The show opened last evening and was largely patronized by the local children, who took much innocent delight and amusement out of the riding and merry-go-round and Ferris wheel. In addition, there are four big tent shows and nine concessions. They will stay here the balance of the week, and then move over to the Mainland.

PIRATES HOLD CANADIAN HEAD OF MISSIONARY ALLIANCE

Toronto Divine and Three Co-Workers Among Victims of River Brigands in China

PEKING, May 29.—C. B. Chamberlain, United States Vice-Consul at Canton, has gone to Wuchow, in Kwangsi Province, to urge action by local authorities to obtain the release of four missionaries, including Rev. R. A. Jaffray, Canadian head of the Christian Missionary Alliance at Wuchow, and twenty Chinese, taken captive recently by pirates who captured the motorboat Roanoke, owned by the American Southern Baptist Mission at Wuchow. The Roanoke was captured near Chenping, on the River Ho.

E. H. Carne, an Australian; B. H. Miller, member of the Christian Missionary Alliance, and Rex Ray, of the Southern Baptist Mission, both Americans, were the others captured. They were all blindfolded and taken to the pirates' mountain stronghold.

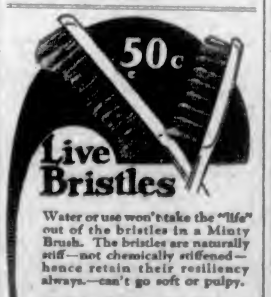

Rev. R. A. Jaffray

TORONTO, May 29.—Rev. R. A. Jaffray, Canadian head of the Christian Missionary Alliance at Wuchow, China, has been for 25 years in the foreign field as a missionary of the Christian Missionary Alliance. He is chairman of the South China and French Indo-China field. The latter field he opened up. In addition to his regular missionary work and the care of the church there, he had found time to establish what is generally recognized to be the most efficient and largest vernacular printing plant in the interior of South China. He is also editor and publisher of one of the most widely read Bible magazines in China, which is published in both Chinese and Korean.

Two days ago at the annual meeting of the council of the Alliance, Dr. Jaffray was elected vice-president, and a cable was sent to him informing him of his appointment. It was hoped that Dr. Jaffray would return to America and take up the work at the home base, but no reply has been received to the cable.

SPEAKING OF
Your Guardian—Woodwork

When you think of the demands made upon woodwork, one realizes why it must be good.

In your home, its timbers must carry the heaviest weight without sagging. It must stand the buffeting of the Winter's storms without swelling. It must submit to the sun's hottest rays without checking. And above all, it must last—almost indefinitely.

Good woodwork does all these things unfailingly—but it must be good.

Score B. C. Government For Its Arbitrary Act

Indignation Runs High at Meeting Held Last Night by League to Prevent Sale of Beer by the Glass—Protest Registered Against Calling of Plebiscite Without Request of People—Bill Declared Iniquitous by Temperance Speakers

INDIGNATION at what was termed "an iniquitous, arbitrary, absurd, undemocratic, and one-sided bit of legislation," ran to a high pitch at the meeting last night of the "League to Prevent Sale of Beer by the Glass," and a special committee was drafted, and met immediately after the proceedings, to take up the whole question of effective methods of campaign "to smother a plebiscite which the Government has called upon the people without request."

Rev. Dr. W. L. Clay presided, and early in the proceedings, Mr. Herbert W. Davey, barrister, was invited to the platform to give an explanation of the operation of the Act. The word "plebiscite," Mr. Davey stated, was a misnomer in this connection, as no matter how large a majority of votes were piled up against the bill, the Act would still remain on the statute books; notwithstanding the plebiscite results, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council might submit another plebiscite at any time; notwithstanding a vote against the sale of beer throughout the Province, the Act would still remain in force. Two further points were emphasized by Mr. Davey: First, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council might bring the Beer by the Glass Act into force in any polling division where there was a majority in favor of the sale of beer, despite the fact that the electoral district as a whole had voted against it; and second, that in order to get a majority in favor of the sale of beer, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council might link up a polling division where there was a small vote against the plebiscite with another polling division where there was a larger majority in favor of the sale of beer.

Worse Than Saloon

The effect of the operation of the Act was compared with the "old saloon days" to the disadvantage—from the Prohibitionists' point of view—of the newer conditions. The Liquor Control Board, under the Act, had absolute control in the say of what premises should or should not be licenced. It might be a large ground floor room or it might be a small room.

"We are not in as favorable a position with regard to these premises as we were in the days of the saloon," said Mr. Davey, "for in the days of the saloon it was not every place that could secure a licence, owing to certain conditions as to the number of people that accommodation had to be provided for." And in the old days the saloon could be refused in any particular locality, whereas under the Act there was no right for petition against licensed premises. The Licensing Commissioners in the old days could revoke a licence in the case of a place coming into bad repute; but under the present Act, although the Liquor Control Board had the right to revoke the licence of any premises, these premises could not be closed.

Another point over which indignation waxed strong, was Mr. Davey's statement that, under the present Act, premises licensed for the sale of beer by the glass might carry on business as a restaurant, the only limitation imposed by the Act being that there should be no sale of soft or other drinks "over a bar or counter."

Public Hoodwinked

Dr. Sippreil was on his feet the moment Mr. Davey concluded his statement, and pronounced in no uncertain voice that "the public had certainly been hoodwinked by the whole Act." Dr. Clay asked if there were any prohibition against the operation of a dance hall in connection with such licensed premises, and Mr. Davey answered in the negative. Mr. Joseph Patrick was another who promptly protested, and was followed by Mrs. Mitchell, Mr. Humphries, Rev. Dr. Macrae, Rev. Dr. Freeman, Mr. Bunn, Mrs. William Grant, Mr. R. G. Howell, Rev. T. W. Gladstone, and numerous others.

Mr. Bunn expressed himself as absolutely astounded that such a piece of legislation could happen in Canada.

"But what can we do?" he asked.

"Put the Liberals out of office," a voice replied.

Dr. Freeman urged a campaign for rounding up the votes of protest against such legislation, "to smother the plebiscite," and Mr. Patrick agreed that no government would dare to enforce an act if a majority of the people were aligned against it. This was but another instance of the temperance question being made a political football. Dr. Clay stated that little as he thought of the Act before, he thought infinitely less of it now that he had heard Mr. Davey's explanation. Before the proceedings came to a close, Mr. Howell called for a resolution "condemning such an iniquitous piece of legislation," and, moreover, the Government was entirely to blame in this instance, "because the people had never asked for a plebiscite on beer by the glass."

The committee appointed to draw up some line of campaign is composed of Messrs. Humphries, Davey, and Mrs. Mitchell. Officers of the league have all been appointed with the exception of the president, being as follows: Chairman of the organization committee, Mr. S. B. Miller; secretary, Mr. Walker; treasurer, Mr. Raymond Macdonald; chairman of the publicity committee, Mr. Humphries.

CEMETERY BOARD SEEKING FUNDS

WILL ASK PERMISSION TO BORROW $10,000

Consent of Victoria and Saanich Is Necessary to Overstep Present Limit Set by Agreement

The Intermunicipal cemetery board will ask Saanich and Victoria to consent to the raising of $10,000 more through the sale of debentures for the purpose of making capital expenditures at the Royal Oak Burial Park.

Under the special legislation secured from the Provincial Government, each of the two municipalities, Victoria and Saanich, is allowed to guarantee up to one-third of one mill on the dollar to provide for interest and sinking fund payments in connection with the issuing of debentures to finance the intermunicipal cemetery. Then again, by special agreement between the city and Saanich, the total amount for which debentures may be issued is $30,000. This limit has already been reached, and in order that further money may be borrowed the consent of both parties will be necessary.

The cemetery board finds that it has not the funds to pay for the building of a house for the caretaker, erecting the entrance gates, putting up a fence, and carrying out other work. In view of this it wishes to borrow another $10,000 and will ask Victoria and Saanich for permission to do so. This, no doubt, will entail the making of a new agreement.

MR. R. L. MAITLAND

A prominent barrister of the Terminal City, and president of the Provincial Conservative Association, Mr. Maitland is one of the colleagues of Hon. W. J. Bowser, K.C., on the Conservative ticket for Vancouver City. Still a young man, Mr. Maitland has won a conspicuous place for himself at the Provincial bar, and his ability is conceded not only by his fellow lawyers, but also by his political opponents. His presence in the campaign will insure a lively battle for Mr. Maitland has already won his spurs as a redoubtable political debater.

SAANICH SPORTS DAY TO BE HELD JUNE 3

Under the auspices of the Saanich Public Schools Athletic Association a basket picnic and sports day will be held at Beaver Lake on June 3. All schools of Saanich have been notified and entries are fast coming in. All, except for aquatic sports, must be in Secretary Rawlins' hands not later than 10 a.m. May 31.

Owing to the great number of school pupils of Saanich, the association will only be able to provide transportation for the respective school entries. It is being arranged that buses or transfers will call for the competitors at 11 a.m. at the schools and return for them to the lake at 7 p.m. It is hoped the remaining pupils, as well as parents, will attend the sports. The B.C. Electric interurban train running to Goward will be the nearest on that line to the picnic grounds. The transportation committee is trying to arrange to have a bus run from Goward station to the grounds. A great number of prizes are being awarded and several cups will be up for competition.

The Campaign

Nomination Eve—
Forces in the Field—
Conservatives' Full House—
The Independents—

Up to last night, the eve of official nominating day, there had been 142 candidates of all sorts and conditions of political affiliation nominated to make the campaign for election on June 20 next to the Provincial House. The forecast in this paper some weeks ago that there would be between 140 and 170 candidates all told will be fairly near the mark.

Analysis of last night's unofficial and incomplete list shows that the three principal parties will have each a complete, or almost complete, quota of standard-bearers. The Liberals, with 46 official candidates, are not officially—it is a distinction but not a difference—contesting Alberni and Comox. In Alberni Major R. J. Burde, M.C., nominally Independent but actually benevolent to the Oliver aspirations, is to be allowed to make his fight against Conservative and Provincial opponents without the intervention of a Liberal. In Comox Mr. P. P. Harrison is running as Independent Liberal; and the Oliver forces are apparently complacent as to the degree of independence to be expected of Mr. Harrison if he is elected. At any rate, the Liberals are not officially—a blessed word, "officially," and covers a multitude of party exigencies—contesting Comox.

The Conservative party is running a candidate for every one of the 48 seats to be filled. Up to last night 47 of these had been nominated; and word was hourly expected of the choice in Atlin, where the convention was held yesterday at Anyox. Ten Conservative members of the last House will seek re-election. As against this the Liberal candidates include 21 members of the last House.

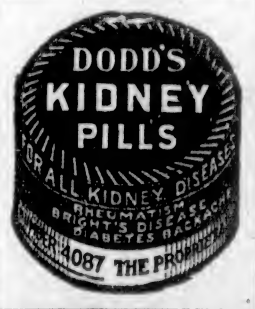

The Provincial Party had nominated 43 candidates up to last night. In Nelson the party has endorsed the Farmer-Labor candidate, Alderman G. Turner. Of the remaining seats it is expected that the Third Party will contest at least two, which will give the Provincials 46 candidates in the entire Province. Only one of the Third Party men, Mr. Kenneth Duncan, of Cowichan-Newcastle, was a member of the last House. One-third of the Provincial Party candidates are farmers.

There were eighteen Labor candidates in the running last night, including five in Vancouver and three in Victoria. Two of them, Mr. Tom Uphill, of Fernie, and Mr. Samuel Guthrie, of Newcastle, were members of the last House. In the same group is Mr. J. H. Hawthornthwaite, candidate of the party here, and a veteran member of the House in the days of the McBride Government.

So far there are only eight independents in the field, but this number is more likely to receive eleventh-hour additions than those of the party groups. Major R. J. Burde is an independent who sat in the last House, and his benevolent neutrality towards the Oliver forces does not warrant his inclusion in the ranks of those who may be considered potential incumbents of opposition seats.

Another independent who sat in the last House is Mr. G. S. Hanes, of North Vancouver. Mr. Hanes is listed as an Independent Liberal, and the official Liberals pay the compliment to his independence of running Mr. J. Melbourne Bryan against him. Mr. Hanes is persona non grata with the Oliver stalwarts because of his inconvenient curiosity in recent sessions about the Pacific Great Eastern Railway. It will be an interesting contest in North Vancouver, where all the parties are represented in the fight, and where Mr. Hanes will have whatever prestige may attach to one who embarrassed the Government by his persistence in dreadful heresies against the faith that everything in P. G. E. matters was the best of all possible arrangements for the best of all possible railways in the hands of the purest and best of all possible governments.

Mr. William Duck was appointed campaign manager for the Victoria Conservative candidates last night at a meeting of the central executive. Mr. Duck managed the 1920 campaign.

NANAIMO WINS HONOR IN FIRST AID CONTEST

Provincial Championship Goes to "A" Team—Western Fuel Juniors Get Nesbitt Trophy

Hon. William Sloan, as president of the B.C. Division of the St. John Ambulance Association, has received the statement of awards for the recent first aid competitions in St. John Ambulance work, conducted by Col. C. A. Hodgetts, M.D., on his recent visit to British Columbia.

In connection with the Provincial Trophy, it is explained by Secretary H. W. Edwardson, that the marks gained by the Nanaimo "A" team, winners of the trophy, count toward the contest for the Montmambert Dominion trophy, no further test being made, each provincial winner having a chance for the national honors.

CANADA AT WAR

A high constitutional authority once said that when Britain is at war Canada is at war; we may say without any constitutional authority at all that Britain is at peace with Turkey and Canada is at war with Turkey. But do not be alarmed. The Turkish cruiser Goeben, kindly lent to the Ottoman Government by Germany just as the war was beginning, is not likely to steam into the straits and bombard the City of Victoria, defenceless as that city may be at the present time.

Canada is at war with Turkey only in a Pickwickian or technical sense. Our Premier is simply asserting what he considers the constitutional rights of the country. He is a firm, we might say an obstinate, believer in the magic of the little word "autonomy." He says Canada was not a party to the Lausanne Treaty and therefore is not bound by its provisions. Mr. King sat at the political feet of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and he refuses to depart one jot or tittle from what he considers the principles of his distinguished predecessor. Furthermore Mr. King believes that Parliament is dominant in this country, and the Lausanne Treaty has never been submitted to the judgment of Parliament; indeed it could not be, because the Leader of Parliament does not accept that treaty as valid, and has refused to submit it to Parliament.

So there you are. The circumstances of the case may seem somewhat confusing to people who believe in direct thought and action, but Mr. King delights in technicalities and fine points of statesmanship. The case is causing a good deal of discussion in the newspapers; but Imperial statesmen are sagacious and decline to discuss it at all.

The London Times wants to know something about the status of the British Empire; whether it is an organic unit or an organization of five separate and distinct nations.

We shall leave our readers to solve the problem for themselves. But the fact is worthy of note that all the other Dominions of the Empire have accepted and signed the Treaty of Lausanne. Canada furthermore is the only national or "autonomous" division of the world that is at war with Turkey. That is a distinction we owe to the statesmanlike finesse of Rt. Hon. William Lyon Mackenzie King.

A MARVELLOUS COUNTRY

London is still the money centre of the world and Great Britain is the most extraordinary country in the world. That is the report brought home by Mr. George Kidd, President of the British Columbia Electric Railway Company, who has just returned from a visit to Europe.

The political situation is very uncertain over there, but the people are giving more attention to business than to politics and are pursuing the accustomed tenor of their way notwithstanding the chaotic political conditions. They are paying their taxes, which in many cases absorb half their incomes, and their national debt, which is the heaviest in the world. They have dismissed "indemnities" from their minds, apparently content to meet their obligations out of their own pockets. Since the close of the war, as Mr. H. H. Asquith has pointed out, the national debt has been reduced by £650,000,000, a sum in excess of the entire indebtedness of the country prior to the war.

A country which can do that cannot be in such a bad way. At the same time there is little doubt that capital has misgivings as to the future. It is seeking investment in other countries, chiefly in American countries, as there is no security in other parts of the world. Europe is a seething caldron of political and social unrest and the conditions in India and other parts of Asia are causing disquietude in the minds of far-seeing statesmen. Canada never had a greater opportunity to secure capital for legitimate investment. But for some reason which her statesmen should be called upon to explain, British emigrants and British capital seem to prefer to seek fortune and investment in the United States and Australia.

HOME INDUSTRIES

The business men of Victoria are trying to convince consumers that in their own interests they should in their purchases give the preference to local product. We are quite sure that consumers, if they pause for a moment to consider all aspects of the matter, will need but little pursuasion on the subject. If the consumer desires quality, there is simply no comparison between the quality of the products of the districts surrounding Victoria and the products imported from other parts of the world.

The native strawberries will soon be on the market in quantities; place baskets of our locally-produced fruit alongside of baskets of the California and Oregon berries and note the difference. The one is rich in color, delicious in flavor and gigantic in proportions compared with the shrivelled up and tasteless product of the foreign grower. And the comparison is applicable to nearly all the products of our own soil.

Then the question of patriotism arises. The United States Congress has passed laws which practically prohibit products of the soil from entering that country. The embargo is not airtight as yet; but a proposal is before the House to make it so. A duty of forty-five cents a bushel on Canadian wheat has not had the prohibitive effect desired, but the question of closing the gates entirely and making the embargo absolute is about to receive consideration. The government also has been asked to take over the job of marketing wheat, fix the price of it, and make the general taxpayer pay the difference between the actual market price and the price received on the markets of the world. That is a sample of the manner in which the United States is protecting the farmer against foreign competition. Theoretically the idea may be unsound and indefensible, but the fact remains that the United States is the most prosperous country in the world. Protection has produced satisfactory results; protection to the point of absolute exclusion may produce disaster. The producers of British Columbia need not look for adequate protection on the part of the present government of Canada. They must do their best to protect themselves, and they can only do that by trying to persuade consumers to patronize local industries.

HUDSON BAY DREAM

When Sir Henry Thornton announced that he would make a personal survey of the Hudson Bay route and decide whether it was practical and feasible for the transportation of grain from the Northwest to Great Britain, The Colonist suggested that a better plan would be to leave the decision to a qualified engineer. A qualified engineer has has just reported to the Federal Government on the subject, and his decision is that the route is neither feasible nor practicable. He says the water is not deep enough at any of the known ports and that the season of open water is so short and dangerous that no captain would care to take his ship into the Bay.

That report should be sufficient to settle the question and to save the taxpayers of Canada many millions of dollars at this time when they have few dollars to spare. What the Progressives, who have set their hearts upon the project and who hold the fate of the King Government in the hollow of their hands, as it were, will say now we do not know. At any rate, the engineer who made the report says it would be cheaper to transport grain to the European markets by way of the Atlantic seaboard than to provide facilities for its transportation by way of Hudson Bay. Possibly transportation of a large portion of the grain by way of Pacific Coast ports of Canada would be cheaper than either. That is a point the engineer appears to have overlooked.

Mr. Henry Ford, whose opinions on economic and political subjects seem to be received with considerable reverence in the United States just now, does not think highly of Washington, D.C., as the capital of the republic. He thinks the climate of Washington is enervating and that the legislators would do better work if they were removed to some more central point in the West. This idea suggests to The Manitoba Free Press a more brilliant idea still. It says that the legislators at Ottawa would be more energetic in the performance of good legislative works if they were transported to and established in a Western and central point—Winnipeg, for example. That is the centre of progressiveness. Possibly the Government of Rt. Hon. William Lyon Mackenzie King, which is dominated by the Progressives of the West, might be persuaded to incline its ear to the idea. But the farther West you go in this country the better the climate—until the ultimate point is reached, which, of course, is Victoria.

A bill to nationalise all lands, minerals, rivers and streams was introduced in the Imperial Parliament this week and was defeated by the narrow majority of twelve votes, a news dispatch informs us. We have a National system of railways in Canada, and that single feature of social, political and industrial progress is giving the taxpayer something serious to think about. The bill in question was introduced by a private member, and the Labor Government therefore was not responsible for it; but the attitude of the Labor leaders probably will be different when they appeal to the electorate rather than Parliament, and they are going to do that very soon. The election will be an interesting affair, one of the most interesting in the history of Great Britain.

The level of the Great Lakes has fallen two feet, says a report from Ottawa. The Chicago drainage canal is doing its work. In a few years the places where the Great Lakes are may all be dry land. Then we suppose Canada and the United States will be scrapping about the ownership of that land, and the question will be referred to a boundary commission, whose decision of course will be in favor of the United States.

Canada's Story Day by Day

By BLODWEN DAVIES

May 30

Canada and the United States have a less picturesque but certainly more satisfactory means of settling their international disputes than by resorting to war. In accordance with their principles of arbitration it was decided on this day in 1893 to appoint a joint commission to discuss the differences which had been irritating the relations between the two countries for some years. There were matters affecting the fisheries on the Atlantic and Pacific coasts, trade relations, warships on the Great Lakes (the United States seeking to abrogate the terms of the treaty of 1817, limiting the size and number of ships), bonding privileges and the fixing of the Alaska boundary. The commission met from August 23 to October 10 in Quebec, and from November 10 to February 20 in Washington. Agreement was reached on almost all the subjects but that of the Alaska boundary. This proved such a stumbling block in the way of a settlement that the commission disbanded and dropped negotiations.

Cure for Verbosity

Sir,—Apropos of the Provincial election campaign and of the volume and variety of verbosity the electors are bracing themselves to endure, the following excerpt from an essay on "The Limitations of Civilization," by Rev. E. J. Hardy, M.A., the well-known author of "How to be Happy though Married," is submitted for study by those seeking suffrages: "I met lately a man who told me that he could speak on any subject for two hours and that he going into parliament. One of the worst of civilization's crimes is that it creates bores like this. They would not be tolerated in a natural state of society. By light of reason alone a tribe of Indians hit upon a plan which might be adopted in church or state. They decreed that in a native council a member may speak during the space of time he can stand on one leg. When through fatigue his other foot touches the ground his oratory must cease to flow."

MR. T. DEASY, RETIRED, RETURNING TO CITY

Old-time Victorian Presented With Address by Haida Indians on Superannuation

Mr. Thomas Deasy, well known old Victorian, is returning to the city after a score of years spent in the service of the Dominion Government, fourteen of them as Indian Agent at Massett and Skidegate, Queen Charlotte Islands. Now that he has been superannuated he is again making his home here.

As souvenirs of his long residence in the Queen Charlottes Mr. Deasy has brought back with him a collection of which he is very proud, of totem poles carved in wood and slate.

Another interesting article now in his possession is an address presented to him on May 23, on the eve of his departure from Massett, by the Indians among whom he has worked. The presentation was made in the house of Mr. A. Adams on the Massett Indian Reserve by the churchwarden, Mr. P. Hill, after a pleasant evening of music and song. It reads as follows:

"Mr. and Mrs. T. Deasy. Dear Sir and Madam.

"Greeting: On your retirement as the agent of this agency, we, the representatives of the Haida Band on the Massett Reserve of the Queen Charlotte agency, beg you to accept from us, on behalf of all the members of our band, this token of our heartfelt thanks for the many willing services you have both rendered to us in the past.

"Especially at the time of our great distress during the epidemic of 1918, when you both so unselfishly gave yourselves to work for, and to assist us with our sick when all other help failed.

"During the fourteen years of your office much has been done for the social welfare of this community, the memories of which afford us great pleasure.

"In tendering this expression of our thanks for your efforts among us (which we know you will appreciate), our hope is that you will both be spared to enjoy the fruits of your labors to a good old age.

"Signed on behalf of the Council and Church, yours sincerely, Alfred Adams, Peter Hill, Mark Ingram, Harry Weah."

DR. SANFORD RAPS WAYS OF PREMIER

EXTRAVAGANT PROMISES AS ELECTION EXPEDIENTS

Island Riding Ignored Because It Returned Socialist, Charges the Conservative Speaker

DUNCAN, May 29.—Sparkling wit and humor, sound logic, and moderation in expression characterized the address delivered by Dr. A. M. Sanford, of Columbia College, in support of the candidature of Mr. C. F. Davie, Conservative candidate for the riding.

Dr. Sanford deplored the action of the Government in promising vast expenditures of money in public works for the sole purpose of influencing votes. Money should be spent for the public good and not for party advantage. He criticised the Government for unfair discrimination in expenditures against the constituencies of Cowichan and Newcastle. Because Newcastle had returned a Socialist was no reason why that district should be unfairly dealt with, as it undoubtedly had been, in the matter of road expenditures. Favoritism to districts was just as unworthy as favoritism to individuals. People lost faith in democratic forms of government when a fair deal all the way 'round was denied.

The enormous wastage of the Government must stop if disaster was to be avoided. An equalization of revenue and expenditure must be reached at once. Careful and honest methods of expenditure were urgently needed. He credited Mr. Oliver with having discovered every known method of taxation, and nothing more need be feared in that direction.

The doctor said that Mr. Oliver was forced to the expedient of making extravagant promises, because the record of the Government would not stand inspection. For two years the Government had been afraid to bring on a by-election in Vancouver because they knew their candidate would be defeated, and they dreaded the effect of that defeat upon the country.

Praises Mr. Bowser

The only man in public life in this Province with the ability and knowledge necessary to lead the country out of the difficulties in which it was involved was W. J. Bowser. He did not believe that General McRae was the man the country needed. He wondered who was the leader of the McRae party anyway. When the General had been tendered the leadership at the Provincial convention he had declined, on the ground that "there were some things in his past for which he would have to apologize."

He also wondered where all the McRae campaign money was coming from. The General had put up $50,000, but that had been used long ago.

"From the States," shouted someone in the audience.

Mr. Reade said it came from the rank and file of the party.

The doctor said he would be glad to know that this was true. They were spending a great deal of money, and their organization in Vancouver was a very expensive one. They employed a large staff in their offices there.

Dr. Sanford said there were two ways of assisting the Oliver Government. One was to vote for the Oliver candidate and the other was to vote for the McRae party, thus dividing the opposition vote. General McRae was playing into Oliver's hands, he said. The doctor was accorded a splendid ovation at the conclusion of his address.

Dr. D. E. Kerr spoke briefly on the redistribution gerrymander, and scored the Premier for insulting language used to delegates who waited upon him at the time the measure was going through. The Conservatives alone stood for Cowichan at that time, and "if we are loyal to Cowichan we must stand by the Conservative candidate now."

Mr. Davie said he intended to wage a clean campaign. He was sorry the Provincial party had seen fit to do otherwise. He would not refer to his opponents as political thieves and liars, as the McRae party speakers had done at Duncan recently. That there had been maladministration, and there was a business depression in consequence, were facts of which all had knowledge. The people were more concerned with the future than with the past.

Mr. Guthrie he considered as his only serious opponent. Socialism was a beautiful theory, but it would not work in this world. A Socialist member could accomplish nothing. Newcastle had been represented by a Socialist for twenty years, and was the worst neglected district in the Province.

Road Work Rapped

Mr. Davie scored the Government for their extravagance. They quadrupled the Provincial debt in seven years. They increased the taxes 400 per cent. They unjustly discriminated against the district. They had destroyed the political entity of both Cowichan and Newcastle to the detriment of both. A special appropriation for highways had been most unfairly distributed. John Oliver's district, with 39 miles of road, got $1,000,000; Dr. Sutharland got half a million for Revelstoke, and Kamloops got a quarter million. Cowichan received $15,000 and Newcastle $5,000 from this source. The printing of the voters' list had been taken from Duncan, and the returning officer's job also went outside. This was a sample of what might be expected under a continuation of Liberal rule.

Mr. Davie said he stood for the abolition of the personal property tax. He believed in single tax for farmers. A farmer should not be penalised every time he erected a fence or cleared an acre of ground. Farmers must be a privileged class if they were to carry on. Their motor vehicle tax should be remitted when used in connection with the marketing of farm produce. The gasoline tax he would abolish altogether.

If taxes were reduced expenditure must be reduced also. Government by commission should be abolished. A million a year could be saved on the civil service. In British Columbia 25 per cent of the revenue was spent on civil service. Ontario spent four per cent and Saskatchewan six per cent in this way. Mr. Davie was loudly applauded at the conclusion of his address.

Mr. W. M. Dwyer was chairman. Questions were invited, but none were asked.

ASHES OF DEAD MAN SCATTERED ON WATER

Dying Wish of Late Olaf Hoist to Return to Campbell River Carried Out

CAMPBELL RIVER, May 29.—Returning to Campbell River on an unusual mission, Mrs. Ernest D. Cornelius, Vancouver, who arrived here a few days ago and who is well-known in this district, having at one time had her residence at Campbell River, on Wednesday last fulfilled the dying wishes of the late Olaf Hoist, Vancouver, when, from a boat off the mouth of the Campbell River, she scattered on the waters of the sea the ashes of the deceased. The late Mr. Hoist, who for years lived here and who longed, when too late, to spend his last days at Campbell River, gave expression to his attachment for this district when he asked, on his deathbed, that his body be cremated and his ashes disposed of in the manner later carried out by Mrs. Cornelius.

Little Girl Knocked Down by Automobile On East Saanich Road

ROYAL OAK, May 29.—A distressing little accident occurred on the East Saanich Road last evening when a Ford car driven by Mr. Fred Goodman, of Victoria, proceeding towards Sidney, ran into little Miss Eva Hurst, who was accompanied by Miss Loma Raven, the two girls having just left Hamsterley Lakeside, where they had spent the early evening.

Evidently Miss Hurst was not aware of the car and darted across the road in pursuit of a ball. The driver brought his car to a standstill at once, but not before the little girl had been hit in the back and dragged under the car by her garments, sustaining several nasty cuts and bruises. First aid was rendered at Hamsterley Lakeside and the young lady taken home by Mr. Goodman.

Pleasant Social Held In Aid of St. Columba's

STRAWBERRY VALE, May 29.—Ideal weather favored the social held in Strawberry Vale Hall, under the auspices of the Women's Guild of St. Columba's Church, last evening, in aid of church funds. An unusually good attendance enjoyed the games arranged by the committee in charge, entering into the spirit of sociability, which was a feature of the affair. The stalls, provided with many good things for sale, did a thriving business, and were in charge of the following ladies: Ice cream, Miss Gladys Walker; home cooking, Miss Frampton and Miss Walker, and needlework, Mrs. Townsend. Mrs. Rowland headed a capable committee which provided tea for those desiring the popular beverage. Mr. Neals, who was in charge of the musical part of the programme, presented several charming numbers, which were much appreciated. Mr. Everest, Miss Everest and Mr. Stapleton took part. Mr. Neals, heading a quartette, rendered several well-chosen selections.

Salt Spring Resident Passes at Courtenay

COURTENAY, May 29.—The death occurred here yesterday morning of Mrs. Halley, of Salt Spring Island, while on a visit to her son, Captain K. G. Halley, of Courtenay. The late Mrs. Halley had suffered from heart trouble for some time past, and this was the cause of her demise. The body will be shipped to Vancouver for cremation, and the remains will be interred at Ganges, Salt Spring Island, where the funeral service will be held. Deceased, who had been a resident of Salt Spring Island for many years, originally came from Glasgow, Scotland. She was seventy years of age. The undertaking arrangements are in the hands of Mr. John Sutton, of Courtenay.

NATIVE SONS OF CANADA

COURTENAY, May 29.—Courtenay Assembly, No. 3, Native Sons of Canada, are making great preparations for the meeting of the grand council which is to be held in the Comox Valley centre on June 3 and 4. There are now twenty-six assemblies in the Province, and it is expected that seventy-five delegates will be present on this occasion, which will be the first time a Provincial grand session will have been held in Courtenay. The co-operation of the Canadian Daughters' League has been obtained by the entertainment committee. The members of the ladies' lodge will serve a banquet to the visiting delegates on Wednesday evening. On Tuesday evening the members of the Courtenay Assembly will tender the delegates a complimentary dance in the open air on the Royston Tennis Court, the finest board court on Vancouver Island. If time permits, delegates will be taken to the camps of the Comox Logging & Railway Co., where they will have an opportunity of viewing logging operations carried on under up-to-date conditions with the most modern machinery and equipment.

LEAVES FOR SCOTLAND

COURTENAY, May 29.—The Rev. Mr. W. T. Beatie left here Monday morning for an extended visit to Edinburgh, Scotland. While in the Old Land Mr. Beatie hopes to visit the British Empire Exhibition at Wembley. Mrs. Beatie and Miss Kathleen are going as far as Winnipeg where they will visit Mrs. Beatie's parents. The many friends and admirers of Mr. Beatie will wish him and his "bon voyage" and an enjoyable holiday. Mr. A. I. Wiseman, of Vancouver, is taking Mr. Beatie's place during his absence.

NOVEL BALL GAME

CHEMAINUS, May 29.—The most amusing game of baseball ever played on the recreation ground took place one evening last week. It was the result of a bet between Mr. John Humbird, manager, and Mr. Irving P. Smith, foreman for the Victoria Lumber and Manufacturing Company, who both said they could pick out the best team of players. The conditions were that, with the exception of the pitchers and catchers, all the members of the teams should be novices at the game.

A very big crowd of enthusiastic fans watched the game, and the shouting could be heard a long way off. Mr. Smith's team won by two runs. Mr. Bob Cadwallader refereed the game to the satisfaction of all.

NARCOTIC WORK WAITS

ROYAL OAK, May 29.—Owing to the fruit season taking the attention of local residents, it has been decided by the provisional committee in charge of the formation of a branch to the Victoria Anti-Narcotic Drug League to postpone activities until the latter part of July.

CHEMAINUS, May 28.—Mr. J. Rufus Smith and his nephew, Mr. Arthur Howe, Jr., are opening up a garage in the old blacksmith's shop on the Island Highway.

Mangled to Death by Winch

HALIFAX, May 29.—Henry Harris, 54, stevedore, was mangled to death when he became entangled in the winch rope of a ship which was unloading. The rope whirled him to death before the engine could be stopped.

Over 500,000,000 envelopes are used annually in handling the United States Government's business.

The schooner Orca, Captain McLachlan, came in yesterday from San Juan with a cargo of hay, grain and produce from Lummi and Broderick.

In the municipal court yesterday McGillivray, rogue and vagabond, was sentenced to three months' imprisonment.

OBITUARIES

ROBERTSON — The funeral of Thelma Victoria, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Robertson, took place on Thursday afternoon from McCall Bros.' Funeral Chapel, corner Johnson and Vancouver Streets. A number of friends attended, and the many floral offerings gave expression to the sympathy extended to Mr. and Mrs. Robertson in the loss of their little girl. Rev. W. G. Wilson, D.D., conducted the service, during which two hymns were sung: "Abide With Me," and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus"; also, "There's a Friend for Little Children," was sung as a solo by Mrs. H. Shingles. The remains were laid to rest at Ross Bay cemetery, the following friends being the pallbearers: Masters G. Heatley, R. Cooper, J. Cruickshanks and D. Walters.

McGREGOR—The funeral of the late James McGregor, who passed away at his home, 51 Menzies Street, last Wednesday morning, will take place Saturday afternoon at 1:15 o'clock from the Sands Funeral Chapel under the auspices of Vancouver Lodge, No. 2, A.F. and A.M. The late Mr. McGregor was 65 years of age, born in Sooke, and a resident of this city for the past four years, former residence Nanaimo. He is survived by besides his widow at home, two sisters in Nanaimo. He was a member of Doric Lodge, No. 18, A.F. and A.M., of Nanaimo.

McGREGOR—Mr. and Mrs. A. R. McGregor, of 1046 Topaz Avenue, were called upon yesterday morning to mourn the loss of their infant son, Russell Henry, aged 2 years. The remains are resting at the B. C. Funeral Chapel, where service will be held on Saturday afternoon at 2:30. Interment will take place in the family plot at Ross Bay Cemetery.

SMITH—Service for the late Mr. Edward Smith was held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the chapel of the B.C. Funeral Co., by the Rev. Canon Hinchliffe. Many friends were present, and the casket and hearse were covered with beautiful floral tributes. The hymns sung were: "Peace, Perfect Peace" and "Abide With Me." The following acted as pallbearers: Messrs. W. F. Godwin, W. Martin and T. English, representing the Canadaian Legion; J. N. Brown, A. Mitchell and G. S. McGregor, representing the G.W.V.A. Among those present were representatives from the various soldier organizations. The remains were laid to rest at Ross Bay Cemetery.

COLEMAN—Mrs. James Vellacott, of Goldstream, has received word of the death of her father, First-Class Master Gunner James Coleman, R.G.A., at Southsea, England, last month. The deceased served thirty-two years in the Royal Artillery, and was given an impressive military funeral. Surviving him are, in addition to Mrs. Vellacott, two sons, Lieut. H. Coleman (retired), and Capt. J. T. Coleman, and a second daughter, the wife of Capt. Bennett Dunn.

MUST STAND TRIALS ON SERIOUS CHARGES

Magistrate Jay Disposes of Series of Connected Allegations Yesterday in Police Court

The police court yesterday was occupied throughout the entire sittings by seduction cases.

In the morning Magistrate Jay completed the hearing of the charges against Wallace McNaughton and James Smith of having done acts to defeat the course of justice in aiding in the getting of one of the girls who was a principal witness in the cases out of the jurisdiction of the courts. The evidence went to show that the girl had gone to the Etheiton Hotel in Seattle.

On this charge the magistrate committed the two accused for trial.

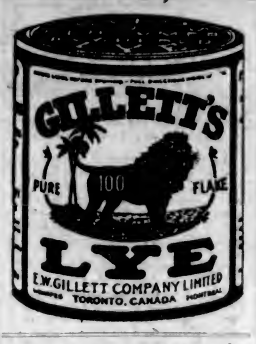

The charges against W. Eastman and W. McNaughton of supplying liquor to minors, which in this case were young girls, were heard by Magistrate Jay and disposed of summarily by him. The offence dated back to April 24. Magistrate Jay convicted the two of them, fining them $100 each, which was the maximum fine that could be inflicted. He took occasion to say that he thought that the law might well provide greater punishment than this for an offence of this character.

The final charge in the series was disposed of in the afternoon when Eastman, on a charge of seduction, was committed for trial.

Messrs. Stuart Henderson and Ernest Miller appeared for the accused in each case, while Mr. R. C. Lowe, acting city prosecutor, conducted the prosecutions.

ROTARIANS PLEASED WITH CELEBRATIO'

Congratulate Victoria Day Committee on Success of Festivities—President Beatty Going to Toronto

Members of the Victoria Rotary Club, at their weekly luncheon gathering yesterday noon in the Chamber of Commerce auditorium, went on record expressing appreciation and congratulation to the Victoria Day Celebration Committee for the excellent programme it staged here last week-end.

The Rotary Float Committee, which consisted of Messrs. Lester Patrick, Victor Clarke and Harry Hly, were highly commended for the splendid exhibit they entered on the club's behalf in the Victoria Day parade, and which won third prize in its class. A number of the Rotarians gave valuable assistance in this undertaking, and they were warmly thanked for their help.

The club chose President James H. Beatty to represent the local Rotary organization at the international Rotary convention, which will be held next month at Toronto. This gathering will also be attended by Rotarian James H. Fletcher, on his journey to London, England.

Rotarian Samuel J. Drake stated that the club would entertain the eighteen members of the nurses' graduating class of the Jubilee Hospital next Thursday at a picnic to be held at a place to be decided upon later.

The club members will greet a party of six who are coming on the Niagara from New Zealand, en route to the Rotary international conference at Toronto. The visitors will be entertained by local Rotarians, the programme including automobile drives and golf during the day, while a dinner dance at the Union Club has been arranged for tonight.

Mr. Bill Kelly informed the club that the Port Angeles Rotarians would visit the Victoria Club next month, and invited the local Rotarians to meet with them in Port Angeles at a 100 per cent meeting on July 4.

Delightful pianoforte solo selections were given by Mr. Ira Dilworth.

Choir Gives Concert—The James Bay Methodist Church choir gave a concert on Wednesday night, when the church was filled to its capacity. A number of part-songs were rendered in a very creditable manner, showing careful training by the conductor, Mr. J. W. Buckler. The choir was assisted by some of Victoria's best local talent, including Mrs. Jesse Longfield, Miss Mary McFadden, Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Tupman and Mr. Ira Dilworth, who ably accompanied the choir. Every item was of exceptionally high order, and encores were numerous. The proceeds of the concert will be devoted to the purchasing of new music.

Mt. Logan Expedition—Mr. MacCarthy, one of the members of the Alpine Club of Canada, who has made extended visits in Victoria in times gone, has gone North to make a reconnaissance of the Mount Logan country in preparation for the expedition which it is planned to send some time next year to attempt an ascent of this giant peak. Mr. MacCarthy accompanied Col. W. W. Various committees were formed, and a most attractive programme of events is being arranged by Capt. Proby, of the Victoria Polo & Riding Academy. Refreshments will be served during the afternoon. It is hoped that the visiting naval squadron will participate in the Army and Navy events, and the naval visitors will be guests at the two-day affair, when, on the second day, a polo match will be played.

The usual monthly meetings of the "Centre" will be held through the Summer on the first Saturday in each month at 8 p.m., in the Community Hall.

the trail in the form of freight rates," Mr. Robertson claimed.

Taxes Steadily Increased

The speaker observed that taxation had steadily increased in British Columbia. The estimated revenue in 1917-18 was around $10,000,000, and the government spent all of it. The estimated revenue this year was $19,000,000, and the estimated expenditure $20,000,000. Expenditures had increased over eight million dollars since 1918. Why so? he queried. And what was the reason? He asserted that the Conservatives, when in power, had promised to build a court house at Prince Rupert, and when the Liberals took office the latter built a court house at the excessive cost of close to $500,000, while Victoria has been obliged to get along with a second-hand court house. Between three and four millions had been spent on the Sumas reclamation, a large figure was expended on carrying out the promise of building a road, which was made at the time of the Nelson by-election by the government, and now the government proposed to build a two million dollar highway along the Fraser River Canyon.

Mr. Robertson referred to Premier Oliver's promise that he would reduce taxation on fruit trees and call a meeting of assessors because he suddenly thought that the farm lands were too highly assessed. The Premier had been in power for eight years, and yet this conviction only occurred to him on the eve of an election. "Can you really say that you are going to get reductions on the promises that he has made?" asked the speaker. Mr. Robertson advocated the Government taking hold of the fruit industry, provide packing houses in suitable places, and assist growers to find a market for their products.

"Don't be misled by Liberal promises," warned Mr. Robertson. "We have had striking experiences in the past of the way the Liberals have failed to carry out their pledges. I don't think any one of you would say that the Liberals abolished patronage. Hon. John Hart, at the time of the last election, told of the Provincial bank that we would have, but we have not heard a word about it since, and we haven't got it yet. And then Sir Wilfrid Laurier promised that if his party were placed in power the country would get free trade; but did you ever get it? Oh, those Liberal promises!"

Stands by Figures

Hon. Mr. Coventry, who was well received, said The Times newspaper was taking exception to statements made by him, and had asserted that he "was reckless with figures about B.C.'s financial condition." The Times also disagreed with the figures as stated by Mr. Herbert Carmichael. "I consider that Mr. Carmichael is one of the best men on statistics in the Province, and I stay by the figures he has given you, that the whole burden of the Province is $137,000,000. "The debt has increased over $47,000,000 from 1916 to 1923, which is not so bad for a Province with less than 500,000 people. The Times says I am reckless with figures, but apparently it didn't have any more epithets left to attach to Mr. Carmichael. Perhaps The Times will try three times for luck in criticizing the figures we have submitted," he declared.

The candidate urged that the Provincial Legislature strongly recommend to Ottawa that duty on eggs imported into and exported from Canada be equalized, saying that at the present time a duty of only 3 cents a dozen was imposed on American eggs coming into this country, while export eggs carried with them a duty of 8 cents a dozen. He said he had yet to hear of his opponent, Hon. F. A. Pauline, praying his party to have such a proposal taken by the House. Hon. Mr. Coventry said that for the year ending February, 1924, over 2 1-2 times as many eggs were imported into Canada as were exported, and compared with the previous twelve months the imported eggs were 200,000 dozen more, while the exports were 738,000 less. Egg production, which was 202,000,000 dozen, an increase of 8,000,000, was valued at $48,000,000. Therefore this made egg production $8,000,000 more valuable to Canada than all her fisheries. In the month of February, 1924, Canada imported from the United States 1,872,426 dozen eggs, while only 287 dozen were exported to the States. And yet the Canadian Government flatly refuses to equalize the duty.

The speaker reviewed the various planks of his platform, and emphasized the crying need of economy and a reduction of taxation. He said the Government only left the municipalities the chance to tax the land. It collected $975,000 from the motor vehicle fees, $290,000 from amusement tax, and the gasoline tax is estimated to bring in $800,000. The Government right there is taking over two million dollars in taxes which rightly belong to the municipalities. But the latter don't get a smell of it. The poor taxpayers, who already have been hard hit, are the ones who have to find this money for the municipalities, Hon. Mr. Coventry claimed.

P. Graham is adopting, especially in the light of his own admission that the $3,000,000 transaction, the Scribe Hotel, was a blunder. In one transaction $3,000,000 was wasted.

Sir Henry Thornton admits "the million dollar deposit" was a mistake. How many more "blunders" and "mistakes" are there? Two account for $4,000,000, and Mr. Graham will not countenance an inquiry. He probably recalls another inquiry in making his decision. It was under his "pork barrel" administration that $36,000,000 was wasted on the National Transcontinental. This waste was spread over a period of five years. What would an inquiry into the $300,000,000 annually expended by the Canadian National Railway discover? Does Hon. George P. Graham fear another Transcontinental exposure? He was in the Ross Government exposure; the Laurier railway debauch; and now is burking an inquiry into the enormous and unchecked spending carnival on the National Railways.

Attack on Dr. Torrance

Hon. W. R. Motherwell's dismissal of and attack on Fred Torrance, V.S., former director veterinary general, adds to the unpopularity of an unpopular minister. There was not the slightest ground for the dismissal of Dr. Torrance, either in his private or public career. It cannot be justified on any count except the desire of Mr. Motherwell to secure patronage. Even worse than the dismissal and more roundly condemned, was, to say the least, the unwarranted attack in Parliament on Dr. Torrance by Mr. Motherwell. There is not a Liberal member, with the exception of half a dozen of the same calibre of Mr. Motherwell, that is not ashamed of the scurrilous, anonymous slanders on a capable and respected citizen that Mr. Motherwell sponsored in Parliament. No other minister in this or any other Parliament has ever been guilty of such methods of dismissal, or ever sought justification by anonymous charges. That Dr. Torrance issued liquor prescriptions to members of Parliament could not be true, as a veterinary surgeon under the Ontario Temperance Act has no authority to do so, and even if issued would not be accepted by the vendor. Even if Dr. Torrance had done so, this is no crime nor misdemeanor. If every medical man in the Civil Service, who issues liquor prescriptions, was dismissed, there would be many more practising physicians in Ontario. To seek to visit on Dr. Torrance suspicions directed against his son-in-law was an equally indefensible attack by Mr. Motherwell. To nearly every member the whole episode is distasteful. Mr. Motherwell has few friends in any party, but he has fewer since he adopted such doubtful methods to justify an unwarranted dismissal of a civil servant who has rendered great service to the agricultural interests of Canada.

PIMPLES SPREAD OVER FOREHEAD
Inflamed and Itched Badly. Cuticura Healed.

"My trouble began with a breaking out of pimples at the edge of my hair which soon spread to my forehead. At first the pimples were very small but became larger and were inflamed. They itched badly for a while and were so embarrassing that I hated to go out. My hair fell out.

"I read an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment and sent for a free sample. I purchased more, and in two or three weeks I was healed." (Signed) Miss Georgia McMillan, 1913 Summit Blvd., Spokane, Wash., July 10, 1923.

Use Cuticura for all toilet purposes.

Notice to Breeders of Livestock

Mr. Erick Bowman, the discoverer of The Bowman Remedy, claims that in treating 70,000 cattle in the United States, the results have been successful in 98% of the cases treated.

Are your dairy cows and heifers causing you trouble?
Are you obtaining results in calves and milk that satisfy you?
Do your cows (according to your knowledge of their capacity) produce as much milk as they should—or are you marking time and feeding a number of boarders that should be sent to the butcher?
These are matters that can be put right. Delays are fatal. Why not consult

A most enjoyable time was spent on Monday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Thomas, Lyall Street, when their little daughter Eileen entertained in honor of Miss Stella Scott and her brother Gordon, who are leaving shortly for Oaklands, California. The afternoon was spent by playing games and singing. Later dainty refreshments were served, after which little Miss Violet Brown presented Miss Stella Scott and her brother with a beautiful fountain pen and Eversharp pencil. After singing Auld Lang Syne" and "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow," the little guests left for home. Those present included the Misses Stella Scott, Margaret Collins, Vera Sweet, Ida Jury, May and Isabel Cameron, Violet Brown, Donna White, Christina Saddler, Valentine Ireland, Mary and Kathie Johnson, May Phillips, Dorothy Dovey, Isabel Stewart, Audrey Callard, Eileen Thomas and Masters Gordon Scott, Walter Phillips and Georgie Brown.

LIBERAL POLICY HIGHLY PRAISED

FREIGHT RATES ARE REAL ISSUE, SAYS PREMIER

Liberal Candidates in Victoria Riding Address Meeting in Oak Bay Municipality

Liberal policies of the future and Liberal policies of the past were presented to a meeting of about sixty Oak Bay residents last night in St. Mary's Church hall by three of the four Liberal candidates in the Victoria riding. Messrs. J. B. Clearihue, M.P.P.; Dr. M. Raynor and S. J. Drake; and Mr. Henry Hall, K.C. and former member of the Provincial Government, explained in detail the fight being carried on by Premier John Oliver to secure reductions in freight and express rates to the Pacific Coast. Mr. C. H. O'Helloran presided at the meeting, and Mrs. Mary McCoy Jameson rendered a number of vocal solos, which were much appreciated.

Mr. Clearihue, the first speaker, dealt with the policy of the Oliver Government in respect to the development of the natural resources of the Province, and asserted that the past record of the Liberal administration was the only constructive one in that connection the Province had ever had. The idea was to develop industries, using natural resources so that the Province as a whole would receive the most benefit.

Assistance to Settlers

The Liberal Government had also assisted the settlers by establishing creameries and promoting co-operative marketing. Help had been given returned soldiers too, he said, and settlements had been established at Merville and Creston. Assistance had been rendered by the Government in respect to irrigation, he said. Private companies had undertaken the work prior to the war when times were good, but when times changed they had given up. The Liberal Government had taken over the work they had started, and thus came to the rescue of fruitgrowers who had purchased land requiring irrigation. The action of the Government in this respect had cost $3,000,000, he said, and he denied the assertion that the money had been squandered. In 1923, when repayment of $546,00 of that sum was due, all but $5,500 of that sum had been paid in.

Asked by a member of the audience what had been done with the "beer money" and if the Liberals had got any of it, Mr. Clearihue disclaimed all knowledge. He knew nothing of party funds, he added.

Mr. Sam J. Drake, who is well known in Oak Bay, having served one year as member of the municipal council and three years as reeve of the municipality, asserted that he was asking for public support as a business man. He was entering the contest under no obligations to any class, clique or creed, and if elected, he would put the interest of the people before all influences.

Strenuous Times

Speaking on the record of the Oliver Government, he pointed out that the past ten years had been the most strenuous for all governments of modern times; yet, while the currency of a great many countries had suffered great deflation, that of Canada was but two per cent under par, and the bonds of the Province of British Columbia were in practically as strong a position in outside markets now as they were in 1914. In view of such a condition, he did not think there was sound reason for cries of ruin which had been heard in various parts of the country.

The biggest issue in the Province at the present time was freight rates, he said, and he urged solid support of Premier John Oliver and the Liberal party in the efforts being put forth to secure fair treatment. Premier Oliver's efforts in that respect so far had been solely responsible for the fact that this year fifty million bushels of prairie grain was shipped for export via the Pacific Coast, and he was sure that if the Liberal party was returned to power that the business represented by that quantity would be doubled and tripled.

Dr. Raynor Heckled

Doctor M. Raynor prefaced his address by a brief reference to the Liberal policy in regard to the development of natural resources and efforts put forth to protect such resources for the people of the Province.

"Someone had said that the function of the government is to protect its people," he said.

A voice: "Or the brewers."

The doctor spoke at some length on the valuable legislation which the Liberal administration has passed in regard to social conditions, and explained his advocacy of a system of health insurance, which, if elected, he was pledged to support. One-third of the men of Canada who enlisted for military service during the Great War were physically and medically unfit, he said. Much had been done since to remedy suc ha condition, but much remained to be done. In regard to liquor, he wes opposed to any further legislation which would in any way increase consumption of spirituous liquors in British Columbia.

Mr. Hall explained at length the intricate sub-divisions contained in the fight being waged by Premier Oliver to secure a fair division of freight rate charges for British Columbia, and he outlined the tremendous advantages which would accrue to the Province if the discriminatory rates now in existence, were removed. He believed that if the Liberal party was returned for another term, the goal Hon. Mr. Oliver was striving to reach would be attained.

Finger prints are reported to have been successfully forged.

Perform Tonight at J. B. A. A. Dance in Empress

PROFESSOR HUNT'S BAND OF SYNCOPATORS

EVERYTHING is in readiness for the James Bay Athletic Association's dance tonight at the Empress Hotel ballroom. This will be the fourth function of its kind to be staged this season under the auspices of this popular local sporting organization, and all who attend are assured of equally a pleasant time as was enjoyed by all who patronized their dances in the past. Professor Hunt's orchestra will be along with the very latest in syncopation, and the dancers will enjoy the haunting dance melodies from 9 p.m. until 2 a.m. A pleasing feature will be the addition of a sousaphone in the orchestra. Dress will be informal. The ballroom, which will represent a miniature rowing course, will be tastefully decorated for the occasion. There has been an unusual demand for reservations for this evening's affair, and it is expected that the ballroom will accommodate a very large number of guests. The committee which is making arrangements for the dance consists of Mr. O. C. Wells, chairman; and Messrs. Ben McMillen, Bob Travis, B. Hocking, E. Fisher and A. MacLaughlin.

While Sunlight Works

YOU have more leisure hours on wash day if you use Sunlight Soap. Away downstairs in the wash tub this wonderful soap will do the labour. You rub the things with Sunlight—you put them to soak—and then its' penetrating, cleansing ingredients search through and through the fibres, loosening even the hardest dirt or the oldest grease stains completely. No wash board rubbing, no boiling, no hard work. Then, with rinsing, the dirt runs away and your clothes are ready for the line, purified and snowy clean.

Wash day should not take your labour—only Sunlight's gentle strength.

BOY DRINKS POISON AND DEATH RESULTS

Son of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. McGregor Swallows Substance From Vapo-Cresoline Lamp

Vapo-cresoline, a substance used as a croup cure, caused the death early yesterday morning of Russell McGregor, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. McGregor, 1046 Topaz Avenue. The little boy had followed his mother into the nursery, where another child was being treated, and clutching the small kettle containing the Vapo mixture, swallowed a small quantity of its contents. The powerful poison almost immediately caused pain, and Dr. A. C. Sinclair was summoned. The boy, who was but twenty-two months old, was taken to the Jubilee Hospital, but despite all efforts to save his life death occurred at 6:30 o'clock in the morning.

Vapo-cresoline is a substance which when heated gives off an aromatic vapor which has a soothing and healing quality, and, while the vapor is harmless, the material itself is of an exceedingly poisonous nature.

Jubilee Hospital staff last night met at a farewell dinner to Dr. Warren, radiologist at the hospital, who is leaving in a few days for California to take charge, in partnership with another specialist, of the X-ray interpretation work in a new medical building recently opened in Los Angeles. Dr. Warren came to Jubilee Hospital about a year ago, succeeding Dr. L. K. Poyntz, and Dr. Walker, who is in charge of the pathological department, made a little farewell speech in which he referred in a happy way to the very cordial relations which had existed between the radiologist and the other members of the staff. It was with great regret that they said goodbye, wishing him good luck in so doing. Dr. Warren's reply expressed appreciation of the pleasant conditions which had been made for him by his colleagues at Jubilee Hospital, and bespoke his admiration for Victoria's numerous attractions.

Others at the gathering were Dr. Pearse, medical superintendent; Dr. Hay, Dr. Davidson, Mr. Fulton, Miss Jessie Mackenzie, director of nursing; Miss Jones, supervisor of the maternity department; Miss Gregory Allen, instructor of nurses; Miss Macdonald, supervisor of the operating room; Miss Newman, supervisor of women and children; Mrs. Collins, supervisor of medical and surgical units; Miss Bayley, night superintendent; Miss Schaffer, dietitian; Miss McKenney, supervisor of the Strathcona Ward; Miss Mitchell, supervisor of the T.B. Ward.

The table was very attractively arranged with bowls of golden roses.

MOONLIGHT EXCURSION TO BE HELD JUNE 14

A moonlight excursion will be held by the Women's Auxiliary to the Canadian Legion on June 14. The steamer, one of the C. P. R. vessels, will leave port at 8 p.m. and will return at 11. The trip will be marked by dancing and community singing. Tickets will be on sale in a few days.

Final arrangements for the cruise were made at the auxiliary meeting on Tuesday night.

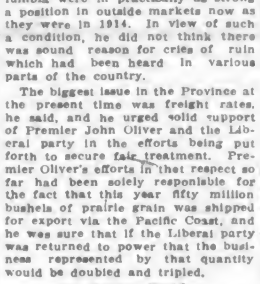

Other business at the meeting included the presentation of reports by various committees. The social convener announced that a concert would be held on June 3 at 7:30 p.m. in the McBride ward of the Jubilee Hospital. Mrs. H. P. Thorpe, the president, was in the chair.

Automotives Badly Walloped by C.P.R.

Garage Workers Handed Severe Trimming by Heavy-Hitting Railroaders—Roy Copas in Initial Performance Pitches Fine Ball—Haley Jackson Hits Second Homer of Year—Eagles Meet Tillicums Saturday

THE Automotives baseball nine fell easy prey to the heavy-hitting railroad aggregation in the regular scheduled fixture played last night at the Royal Athletic Park, and were forced to admit defeat by a score of fourteen to two. Ray Copas made his debut as a pitcher, and gave a good acount of himself, striking out five men and allowing only three scattered hits. Haley Jackson poled out the second homer of the season in the first inning, with one on.

The Automotives were forced to use three pitchers in the attempt to stem the tide of the fast-stepping railroaders, Parfitt was forced to retire at the end of the second, and his place was filled by Roscamp, who lasted until the end of the sixth, when he was replaced by Moser, after seven more counters had been chalked up against him. Roy Copas pitched fine ball throughout the seven innings and was never in serious danger.

Heavy Hitters

Haley Jackson and Richdale, for the railroaders, were the heavy hitters for the night, Jackson securing a homer and two singles in four times at bat, while Richdale knocked out three safeties in five trips to the plate. More hit one thousand per cent in twice up by knocking out a two-bagger and a single. Roy Copas secured two hits out of four chances.

Jackson started the ball rolling from the start when he drove out a long one to right field for a four-base hit, scoring F. Campbell in front of him. In the second they added another four, Colin Campbell, Nachtrieb, More and Roy Copas crossing the plate.

The mechanics scored their only two in the second when Mackie doubled and scored on Fetherston's two-bagger, Roscamp batted for Parfitt and drove a hard one to deep centre, scoring Fetherston. The railroaders added another in the fourth, when F. Campbell scored on Jackson's long drive to left field. Three more were added in the fifth, when Nachtrieb, Mora and R. Copas went over.

The Automotives looked good in the fifth, when they managed to get two on without anyone away, but Copas hurled airtight ball and retired three in a row. Three more runs were earned by the railroaders in the sixth, when they batted Roscamp's offerings to all corners. Richdale, Nachtrieb and Colin Campbell crossing over. Jackson drove another in in the seventh, when he polled out a long single and scored Richdale.

Saturday's Game

On Saturday afternoon the Tillicums and Eagles will battle at the same park. The game will be called at 3 o'clock sharp.

GOLF AT COURTENAY

COURTENAY, May 28.—The semi-final round in the Mutrie Cup competition was played yesterday on the Courtenay Golf Club's links at Sandwick between Charles Graham, of Cumberland, and F. C. Brook, of Courtenay. Both players completed the eighteen holes in 108 strokes, but victory goes to the Cumberland golfer, who received four strokes from his opponent. It is now certain that the Mutrie Cup, which is a trophy for semi-annual competition, will go to Cumberland, as the final round will be between Charles and Thomas Graham, of the coal town. The Courtenay Golf Club's links are now looking their best and a great number of players are enjoying the royal and ancient game here under ideal conditions.

TROPHY DISPLAY AWAKES INTEREST

MANY ADMIRE FINE DISPLAY MADE BY J.B.A.A.

Club Conducting Campaign for Increased Membership—All Forms of Athletic Activities

The display in one of the windows of David Spencer, Ltd., by the James Bay Athletic Association, has been attracting a great deal of interested attention, not the least being shown in the fine photographs of the veterans who were instrumental in giving Victoria's pioneer athletic club the position in the world of sport which it has held for many years.

The club is at present engaged in a special campaign to increase its membership, and is taking this means among others of demonstrating to the general public the success in sporting circles which has attended the efforts of its members.

Rowing has always been one of the chief activities of the club, and the rowing trophies make a very fine display, but rowing is by no means the only sport which is encouraged and for which excellent facilities are afforded by the club. Practically every line of indoor and outdoor sport is included, and the membership roll of the J.B.A.A. is open to both adults and juniors of both sexes.

Membership forms may be obtained from T. D. Roberts, secretary of the J.B.A.A.; from Frost & Frost of W. H. Wilkerson's stores.

NEW YORK, May 29.—Benny Leonard, world's lightweight champion, and Johnny Dundee, holder of the featherweight and junior lightweight crowns, signed articles today for a 15-round match at the Yankee Stadium late in July.

GEORGES AND TOM FINISH TRAINING

BOTH REPORTED AT THE PEAK OF CONDITION

Referee Dickerson Confers With the Boxers and Managers and Explains Rules of Fight

MICHIGAN CITY, Ind., May 29.—Comparative measurements of Georges Carpentier and Tom Gibbons, who meet here Saturday afternoon in a ten-round boxing match, show that Gibbons has the advantage in height and that Carpentier has become heavier around the chest and shoulders since he fought Jack Dempsey in 1921.

The boxing critics declare that Gibbons is not drawn as fine as the Frenchman. However, they say both are at the danger point, but that Gibbons' condition should be a bit finer, and that Carpentier may be too finely conditioned. E. W. Dickerson, of Grand Rapids, Mich., referee of the contest, met Carpentier and Gibbons and their managers today for a conference over rules. The rabbit, kidney and the pivot blows will not be permitted. Neither will the boxers be allowed to hit in the breakaway.

Referee Dickerson said that should a foul be claimed he would count ten over the fallen boxer and then call a physician into the ring to make an examination. If the examination reveals injury the contest will be awarded to the fouled boxer; but if the physician rules otherwise he will award the contest on a knockout.

Breaks Track Record At Connaught Park

OTTAWA, May 29.—The Seagram stable's imported filly, Malapert, raced to a well-earned victory in the holiday purse at Connaught Park today, setting a new track record of 1:39 2-5 to beat R. T. Wilson's Forest Flower, in first money over the mile track. The old record for a mile was 1:39 4-5, held by Wilksbarre.

The SPORTLIGHT by Grantland Rice

Answering a Query

Dear Sir: If Tilden is a tennis professional why aren't you, in the same way, a golf professional? L. T. H.

* * * *

If they should label us a pro,
We'd beam with satisfaction
To find that we could strike a blow
Where Sarazen and Hagen go;
But, oh, so few will pay their dough
To see our swing in action.
Of pros they might call us the king.
But would it, sir, mean anything?

We've found that we can rarely ply
The pen and cleek together,
For, though we more than often try
To make our half-topped mashie fly,
Too oft, alas! we holst the eye
In any sort of weather.
We're not a pro because their game
And ours doesn't look the same.

Answering Another

Dear Sir: Would you be willing to answer this question? Why is it that champion women swimmers are year after year, almost without exception, most attractive and exceedingly good looking. Please don't take this question as a joke. Does swimming account for it? H. H.

We are glad to confirm the allegation if we can't unravel the allegory. Swimming is a fine exercise for women—a wonderful body builder. Why such a supply of good looks should accompany the laurel is beyond us. If it were not in all seriousness we might suggest that it is to supply the demand of newspapers and magazines for the most attractive photographs to be had.

The Next Move

The next move for the winner of the Gibbons-Carpentier fight is in the direction of Gene Tunney.

Tunney is light heavyweight champion of America. He has a war record and a ring record without a blemish. He is keen to fight, with no willing rival in the offing. Since his hands have been revamped he is a much better hitter than he was before and with his courage and cleverness will be about all any light heavyweight can handle.

If the dope breaks correctly there will be nothing dull in any battle which features Carpentier. No one has ever seen him yet hold back for a defensive afternoon or evening. Perhaps the vital spark within is badly dimmed, but that can't be told until the moment of test.

The West and the World Series

The West had no world series in 1911, 1912, 1913, 1914, 1915 and 1916. Six years of famine. The West has had no World Series since 1920. But there is a good chance that at least one Western club will emerge from the wilderness and the barren lands this Summer to start some old-fashioned intersectional excitement.

There is strength in Cincinnati, Pittsburgh, St. Louis, Cleveland, Chicago and Detroit—more strength than any of these clubs had a year ago. They are coming on.

Two Virtues

"Sixteen years ago," writes J. J. P., of Richmond, "Jack Quinn won seventeen straight in the Virginia League. And he is still in the big show pitching fine ball. I mention this to suggest that he has two great virtues which others might follow to some advantage—he talks little and works all the time."

There may be two greater virtues linked together but for the moment we can not recall what they are.

* * * *

Boston is rapidly resuming its old stand in the baseball marts. Here is one of the great cities of the game deserving something better than the fate of the last few years. The rebound will find the old guard waiting with three rousing cheers. The valley has even darker shadows when you've spent some time on the heights.

A Golf Tip

Tell your story of hard luck shots,
Of each stroke straight and true;
But when you are done, remember son,
That nobody cares but you

* * * *

The activity of our ring champions is so great that some one will have to stop the crowding. These gay and giddy hustlers fight almost once a year. What system can stand up under such a strain?

* * * *

"One putt may win the open golf championship," says an exchange. One putt may, but there will also be some 290 other strokes of various types that must also be counted

FIGHT TONIGHT

NEW YORK, May 29.—Supreme Court Justice Benedict in Brooklyn today vacated the injunction issued on Monday to restrain the Nostrand Athletic Club holding the Pancho Villa-Frankie Ash flyweight title bout in the club's outdoor arena. The promoter announced the fight would be held tomorrow night.

HILLCRESTS MEET CIVIL SERVANTS

HARD GAME IS EXPECTED WHEN RIVALS CLASH

Tillicums Clash With Moore-Whittingtons—Y.M.C.A. Meets Esquimalt—Navy Plays Priors

With the first half of the Victoria and District Indoor Baseball League schedule near completion, tonight's games will be watched with interest by the members of the Garrison team. The Tillicums and the Hillcrests, runners-up to the Tommies, will be in action tonight and defeat for these teams will give the soldiers a good advantage. Tonight's games are: Civil Service vs. Hillcrests at Macauley; Priors vs. Naval Barracks, at Canteen Grounds; Esquimalt vs. Y.M.C.A., at Central Park; Moore-Whittington Lumber Co. vs. Tillicums, at Royal Athletic Park. All games will commence at 6:45 sharp.

In the meeting of the Civil Servants and the Hillcrests a good game should result. The former team has been playing good ball of late, and in their last encounter they held the Tillicums down to four runs. Tonight they expect to climb another step on the ladder at the expense of the Hillcrests. At the Canteen Grounds Priors will be the guests of the Naval Barracks for the first time this season. The former team has yet to win a game, while their opponents are holding down fifth place.

While other teams in the Indoor Baseball League are battling for honors at various diamonds the Y.M.C.A. nine will be at home to the Esquimalt team at Central Park. This game should be a thriller as these teams are of about even calibre. As things are at present the Y.M.C.A. are two rungs nearer the top of the ladder than their opponents but after tonight's game quite a different story may be told. The Tillicums will be the hosts of the Moore-Whittington Lumber nine at the Royal Athletic Park in the fourth game of the evening. The former team are joint occupants of the second berth, while their opponents occupy the cellar. The Lumbermen will be on hand to try and chalk up their first win of the season.

St. Paul's Tennis Club Opens Season Tomorrow Afternoon

The St. Paul's Tennis Club, Esquimalt, will hold its official opening on Saturday next at 2:30 p.m. Rev. F. C. Chapman and Reeve Lockley will start the first game.

Tea will be served at the courts and all members and their friends are cordially invited to be present.

The club will have two courts this year, a new hard surface court has been completed and is now ready for use and several improvemtnts have been made to the grass court. The membership also has increased considerably this year and it is expected the club will be very strong this season. Ten tournament matches have already been arranged with different clubs of the city and district.

There are still a few vacancies for membership to be filled and application may be made to the secretary, Miss H. Stevens, 1388 Esquimalt Road, Esquimalt.

OLYMPIC SOCCER

Sweden Springs Surprise by Beating Belgium by 5 to 1—United States Eliminated

PARIS, May 29.—Uruguay today qualified for the quarter finals in the Olympic soccer football competition by defeating the United States 3 to 0, in a match, the score of which does not begin to show the difference in class between the two teams. The other teams which qualified today were Sweden, which electrified the Olympic football world by defeating Belgium 5 to 1; Egypt defeated Hungary 3 to 0; and Italy won from Luxembourg 2 to 0.

DERBY BETTING

LONDON, May 29.—The latest betting on the Derby, which will be run at Epsom next Wednesday, follows:

7 to 1 against Diophon.
10 to 1 against St. Germains.
100 to 9 against Dawson City.
100 to 8 against Bright Knight.
15 to 1 against Sansovino.
22 to 1 against Knight of The Garter.
25 to 1 against Parmenio.
40 to 1 against Tippler, taken and offered.

Steve Donoghue, who has ridden to victory in the last three Derbys, will have the mount on J. B. Joel's Defiance.

REDDICK KAYOS WILLIAMS

ESTEVAN, May 29.—Jack Reddick, Canadian middleweight champion, knocked out Jack Williams, of Minot, N.D., here tonight in the third round. Reddick had a big advantage in weight and reach. For two rounds the fight was tame and did not speed up until the referee warned Reddick to fight or he would stop the affair. The champion took the warning to heart and in the third floored Williams for the count of nine. The knockout followed.

Boxers Arrested

SAN FRANCISCO, May 29.—Bert Colima and Frankie Denny, welterweights who were to prove the main event in a boxing show here tonight, were arrested at the end of the first round on a charge of being professional prize fighters, it was announced from the ring.

FINAL arrangements were made yesterday whereby Arne Borg, the famous Swedish swimmer, who is holder of several world's swimming records, will appear in a gala which is to be staged under the auspices of the V. I. A. A. at Curtis Point on Saturday evening at 7:15.

Davies, who is looking after the arrangements for staging the gala for the V. I. A. A., requests that any local swimmers who are willing to take part in this impromptu gala hand in their names as early as possible so that a definite programme of swimming, diving and water polo events can be arranged.

The net receipts from the gala as well as the field sports which are being staged Saturday afternoon at 2:30 will go towards the fund which is being raised to send Dr. Cecil Hay, the local sprinter, to the Olympic trials at Montreal.

The programme for the field sports is as follows:

100 yards, boys 14 and under.
100 yards, girls 14 and under.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 29.—The Senators took their second game in succession from San Francisco today, 2 to 1. Although the Seals got one more hit than their opponents, they could not bunch them at the right time. The home team's marker came in the first when Kelly knocked a circuit clout into the leftfield bleachers. After that Hughes was almost invincible. Sacramento won in the seventh. Promoter Johnson Has Three Bouts for Tunney

NEW YORK, May 29.—Promoter James J. Johnson announced today that he had signed Gene Tunney, American light heavyweight champion, for three bouts to be held this Summer. Tunney will first fight the winner of the Carpentier-Gibbons fight, and either Jack Renault, Canadian heavyweight, or Harry Wills will be his second opponent. If he succeeds in winning these bouts, Tunney will be matched with Jack Dempsey, Johnson said.

EAGLES TO PRACTISE

The Eagles baseball team will hold a practice tonight at the Royal Athletic Park at 6:30. All players are requested to turn out.

Sportive Punches

By the "Old 'Un"

Although the magnates, naturally enough, have blamed the backward Spring back in the Eastern States of the Union for the falling off of the receipts of the big league baseball clubs, New York reports that there seems to be a feeling in the land that the baseball fever that struck the populace in 1920 is dying out.

* * * * * * *

Home-run hitting was credited in some quarters with arousing a new interest in baseball, but when it became a common occurrence rather than an unusual event public interest dulled.

* * * * * * *

The same New York authority claims that the monopoly of the Gotham teams on pennant prospects has helped to kill receipts.

* * * * * * *

It is said that the commercialism of the New York clubs has crushed out the sport of the thing, and that high baseball officials themselves are beginning to admit that three times successive winning of the pennant by one city is about all that baseball will stand.

* * * * * * *

There's one thing about betting by machinery. If the machine is well anchored down, don't see how it can turn into a mechanical welsher!

* * * * * * *

Back in Chicago there was a handbook operator who seems to have left a good many to mourn his departure when he made it suddenly without any tender farewells.

* * * * * * *

It is reported from a reliable source that this bookie accepted more than $400,000 at an average price of forty to one on Black Gold, and when that nag come home a winner he left hurriedly for parts unknown without any P.P.C. cards.

* * * * * * *

That's not the only sensational story connected with the winning of the "Golden Jubilee Derby" by Black Gold.

* * * * * * *

The yarn comes from Louisville that the jock, Johnnie D. Mooney, was offered $30,000 to pull the horse, but he was honest, rode a perfect race and was rewarded by the owner with a cheque for $15,000.

American soccer fans appear pleased at the prospect of welcoming the CORINTHIANS to their country again for another tour.

* * * * * * *

On their first visit to America the Corinthians defeated a picked team of New York City and vicinity by 10 to nil. "But," writes the Yankee scribe, "since their last visit soccer has made such tremendous strides in this country, it would not be surprising if they should have great difficulty in winning a majority of their games this time."

* * * * * * *

It would surprise this child very much indeed.

* * * * * * *

By the way, it's interesting to notice how several British games have been making "tremendous strides" in the States lately besides soccer.

* * * * * * *

Cricketers will no doubt all be more or less interested in the decision of the M.C.C. at its annual general meeting to approve the addition of two balls to the over in Australia and New Zealand.

* * * * * * *

The Field has discovered what it thinks must be a new fashion in cricket. In the recent match between Cambridge and Lancashire, it was noticed that all the men on the field were playing without caps, although wearing sweaters (except the two bowlers).

Visible Pari-Mutuels Show Where Money Goes

Mr. J. T. O'Brien Invents New Device Which Accurately Registers Betting Odds in Dollars and Allows Bettor Opportunity of Watching Course of His Investment—No Chance of Heavy Last-Minute Wagers Making Big Alteration in Returns

THE WISH of the sporting public has always been that a Pari-Mutuel machine might be built that would show the voyage of their invested dollars from the time of their investment until the final calculation had been made on the winning horse. Much of the intricate route has always in the past been "out of sight" of the bettor after the machine had accepted his financial expression of sentiment for his favorite's chances, to stay unseen until the mutuel results were posted.

Also it has been the wish of mechanics to perfect a machine that would keep the public posted constantly of the amounts of money bet on every horse in a race from the opening of the betting period until its close, these figures to be given in dollars wagered, instead of merely recording the number of two-dollar tickets sold on each horse on one machine and the number of five-dollar tickets sold on another machine and the ten and twenty-dollar tickets sold on other machines.

Another desire of both the mechanics and the public has been that a method might be devised that would not only keep the public advised of the comparative favoritism shown in dollars on a machine towards one or more of the entries, but would also display the method and process of dividing or calculating the gross investment of the public's money on the race after it is over.

Company Formed

These features appear to have been successfully worked out in a Pari-Mutuel machine and system that has been invented by J. T. O'Brien, of Two Jacks Dope, of Victoria. The machine and system has been turned over to the Visible Pari-Mutuel Machine and System Company, a newly incorporated British Columbia corporation, the officials of which concern will be announced in a few days.

The ticket sales department of the Visible differs a little from the old method of two, five, ten and twenty-dollar straight, place and show booths, in that the bettor, after selecting his choice for a race, proceeds to a booth where only tickets on his favorite are sold; there he may buy tickets of any price he chooses. As the investment is made it is recorded in the total of dollars invested—not in the number of tickets sold—directly above his head in what is called a visible recorder.

The Visible machine registers, adds and records with one tap of the finger by the seller on a key. There are only four keys on the printing machine—a 2, 5, 10 and 20. This simplifies the work of the operator to just one stroke when he sells a ticket. The machine is electrically operated and the great number of machines used may be locked from the judges' stand by a switch similar to an electric light switch. This locking feature had to be introduced into the machine to comply with the demand of the Criminal Code that calls for the locking of the machines when the horses pass the stands on the way to the barrier.

After the machines are locked not a ticket may be sold until they are released by the Federal Government representative in time for starting wagering on the next race.

The machine allows the public to make its own odds because they can keep their eye on the "play." This is the cardinal tenet of pari-mutuel, or, in English, mutual betting: "Let the public make their own odds."

Machines Locked

The dollars invested on each horse are placed on the visible estimate-of-odds board every few minutes and bettors are advised of the trend of wagering up until the time the machines are locked. There may be as many as a dozen or more estimates of odds given before the machines are locked. The Visible machine shows these to within a minute or a half-minute of final calculation time.

If any last minute heavy wagers are made the public sees them made and recorded. This constant visibility of everything that is going on gets away from the usual practice of "holding off" until the last minute and then "crashing the sales windows," many times practised by bettors. The bettor feels under this system that it matters not when he makes his "play" and "gets in early," thus relieving the salesman of many anxious moments.

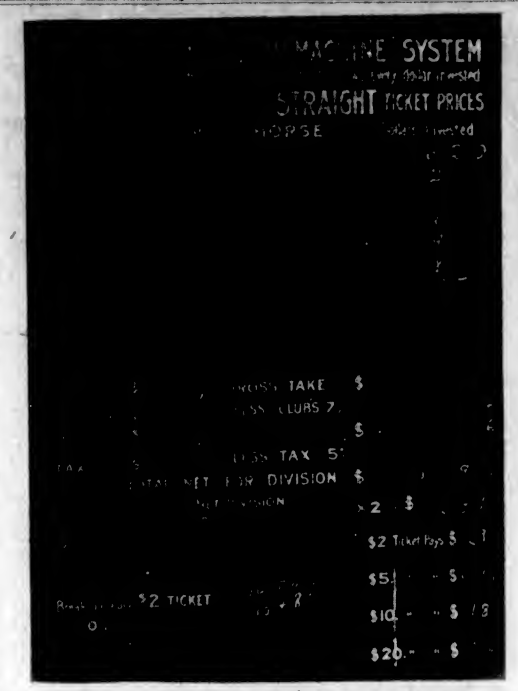

The system is provided to take care of "crowd rushes" in the same way that a general brings up reinforcements to take care of increasing pressure on his line. Machines are held like reserves to be brought up wherever needed to keep things going steadily.

Calculation boards display to the public the correct gross receipts on the race, the method of deducting the tax and commissions and showing the breaks on multiples of five cents that go to the association. Straight, place and show calculation boards deliver the results of their calculations entirely completed in the space of one minute's time from the sending of the result from the judges' stand by telephone message to the calculators.

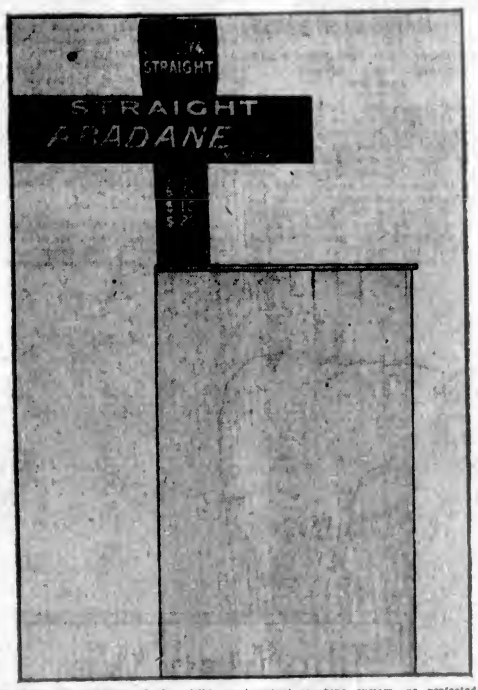

Mr. O'Brien believes the machine will be a popular one with the public, with the horsemen and with the racing associations. They will correct a great many unreasonable impressions that the public may have gathered in the past and stimulate the sport of horse racing and wagering.

The machines will be entirely Canadian built and guaranteed to protect the public's investments. They protect the association, while they are acting as custodian of the public's money.

They comply with the requirements of the Racing Act to the last detail, and even go beyond that measure by showing the calculations in plain sight.

This shows a straight calculation board, as devised by Jack O'Brien, which delivers results twenty seconds after the result is announced. This allows bettors to figure for themselves exactly what a ticket will pay before the race is run—after the machines are locked.

This shows the working of the visible pari-mutuel machine system, as perfected by Jack O'Brien.

UNIVERSITY CAST WILL STAGE WORLD AND HIS WIFE TODAY

"The World and His Wife" will be presented by the Players Club of the University of British Columbia at the Pantages tonight at 8.15.

The play is a powerful drama, the tragedy of idle, non-malicious gossip, showing the tremendous influence of the sayings of "They."

The curtain rises on a well-ordered Spanish household of the upper class. Don Julian, a successful middle-aged gentleman, married to the young and beautiful Teodora, is discharging an obligation to his deceased friend by caring for his son Ernesto, a handsome young man with a poetic nature. All goes well until Don Julian's brother Severa, his wife Mercedes, and their lively son, Pepito, insistently report that "people are talking." But Don Julian has a high sense of honor; and it is not until reports seem strengthened by his own observations that he will hear of any evil. However, in the narrow limits of three acts a peaceable and serene household is plunged to a tragic end and sacrificed on the altar of misunderstanding to that great god "They."

The final act is one of the most powerful in modern drama, rising with ever-increasing dramatic power to a tremendous climax.

The play leaves the audience pondering over the question: "Blanderer, is he the public avenger or tempter?" We see the awful result of gossip, we see the far-reaching consequences of insinuations, and we hesitate lest we ourselves, with careless word or gesture, increase the terrible power of that impersonal monster.

DOMINION THEATRE While the average layman would feel that any garment or wearing apparel worn by the feminine sex that cost $50,000 should be carefully guarded under lock and key, or put on exhibition in some museum, the women will gasp with amazement and adoration when they see Edna Purviance in "A Woman of Paris," Charles Chaplin's first serious film production, now showing at the Dominion Theatre, carelessly draping over her shoulders a chinchilla wrap which cost the round sum of $50,000. And this is not a "moving picture" chinchilla wrap that is made but to photograph. Ask any woman or furrier if chinchilla can be imitated or counterfeited, then ask Charlie Chaplin if the $50,000 paid for it was counterfeit.

COLUMBIA THEATRE Johnny Hines, whose name stands for pep, effervescent punch and sparkling comedy, stars in "Little Johnny Jones," the screen adaptation of the George M. Cohan popular stage success, which opened with great eclat at the Dominion Theatre yesterday. It is seldom that a picture-play of such fine calibre comes to town, one with three such sterling points to commend it: first, Johnny Hines himself, the peer of cinema comedians; then George M. Cohan's play; and last but not least, the photoplay itself, a Warner Brothers' classic of the screen. In addition to the fine acting of Johnny Hines, with his fresh bag of tricks, his supporting cast deserves high praise; Windham Standing, Margaret Seddon, Robert Prior, Molly Malone, George Webb, Mervyn LeRoy, "Fat" Carr, Pauline French, and Brownie, the Wonder Dog, on whom devolves an important role.

CAPITOL THEATRE "A fortune for make-up" was the cry of the players in Metro's "The Uninvited Guest," now playing at the Capitol Theatre. During the filming of the picture in the Bahamas, where the company went on location, someone accidentally dropped most of the make-up into the water while some of the shipwreck scenes were being taken. Producer Williamson sent his scouts all over the islands for make-up, but since making motion pictures is an event down there, no stores could be found that dealt in cosmetics used by film actors. A native with whom Mr. Williamson had become acquainted some time previous while filming one of his undersea pictures, came to the rescue with a large supply of make-up that another company had ordered and which arrived a little after they had left. It was purchased in a hurry.

ROYAL THEATRE Richard Barthelmess and May McAvoy are agreed that "The Enchanted Cottage," Sir Arthur Wing Pinero's play, provided them with the hardest work they have thus far encountered since they entered the movies. "The Enchanted Cottage," as a First National picture, will be the screen attraction at the Royal Theatre again today. Dick and May put in two solid weeks of rehearsing at the inspiration studio at Fort Lee, N. J., before the picture went into actual production. During that period they not only went over the scenes again and again, but spent much of their time changing very difficult make-up. Barthelmess portrays the tragic figure of a wounded war veteran, stoop-shouldered, sunken-faced, while Miss McAvoy, whose natural beauty has played an important part in her screen success, conceals her lovely face in make-up that makes her appear a homely little English governess, with prominent teeth and a hook nose.

PLAYHOUSE THEATRE "The India Rubber Girl" continues to cause unbounded mirth to the big audiences it is drawing nightly. In this play Ernie claims that he tells eighty-six lies in fifty minutes, constituting a record. "Youthful Cheaters" on the screen, featuring Glen Hunter, is attracting considerable notice on account of its wonderful scenes and delightful acting, as well as the interesting theme of its story. This young screen actor has come to the front with remarkable speed and really he deserves success, as he is practically the only boy actor who leaves the impression of manliness in his acting.

FIRST DAY OF SALE FOR LIGHTNIN' SEATS BRINGS BIG RUSH

Scenes that are enacted once or twice each season around the box office of the Royal Victoria Theatre attended the opening of the advance sale this morning for "Lightnin'," the famous comedy success which John Golden will present Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, June 2, 3 and 4.

Many local people have seen "Lightnin'," which ran for three years in New York and sixteen months in Chicago, and their enthusiastic praise, coupled with unprecedented advertising that the play has received as holder of the long-run records for both cities, has awakened tremendous interest in the offering here. In the long box office line this morning were many people of varying ages and classes who seldom attend the theatre. The rush taxed the facilities of the box office and the treasurers were kept busy on the jump throughout the day. There are still plenty of good seats to be had, however, and patrons who visit the theatre tonight or tomorrow can pick from a good selection.

ALPINE CLUB CAMP TO BE AT ROBSON

Highest Peak of Canadian Rockies, Scaled in 1913 by Lieut.-Col. Foster, of Victoria, to Be Rendezvous

Mr. L. H. Mitchell, of Sidney, B.C., secretary of the Alpine Club of Canada, is circulating particulars of the 1924 Summer camp to be held at Mount Robson July 22 to August 4, inclusive. It will be recalled by many that a camp was held there in August, 1913, when Messrs. W. W. Foster (then living in Victoria) and MacCarthy succeeded in reaching the summit of this great peak under the leadership of Conrad Kain, the Swiss guide. So particular interest centres in this year's expedition, and it is known that a great many of the members are determined to attempt the ascent under the improved facilities that are to be provided in the establishment of a higher camp on a shoulder of the mountain just at the edge of the timber line.

The nearest railway station for Mount Robson is on the Canadian National Railway, about nineteen miles from the point which has been decided upon as the site of the base camp, and Victoria members who intend joining the expedition would make the holiday more interesting if they went by one route and returned by another. The journey to camp is rather long to make in one day, so a camp is to be pitched about half way between Mount Robson Station and Mount Robson camp. Those who are prepared to pay for ponies can easily make the entire trip in one day.

The bulletin contains a great deal of useful and indispensable information regarding baggage, transportation, outfit (blankets, clothes, etc.), and those who know the district will find much illuminating matter respecting some of the subsidiary climbs which will be organized with Mount Robson camp as headquarters. If possible it is hoped to provide a dark room for the use of members interested in photography.

RENOWNED ORGANIST MARRIED IN PARIS

Marcel Dupre, Here Last Winter and Previous Season, Becomes Benedict

Marcel Dupre, the renowned organist of Notre Dame Cathedral, Paris, has joined the ranks of Benedicts, being married in the early part of May to Mlle. Jeanne Pascoreau. Mr. Dupre's bride is well known to the elite of Paris, being an accomplished musician. It will be gratifying news to the thousands of admirers of the great organist that his marriage will not mean any alteration in his immediate plans for touring, and his arrangement to visit America next Autumn to make a short tour of the Atlantic coast cities will be carried through. The prospect for the Western part of the continent are not so happy, as it is stated that it will be several years before he again comes to the Pacific Coast. Although it is only within the past two years that Victoria has had the pleasure of being included in his itinerary, thanks to the instrumentality of Mr. George Dyke, who succeeded in arranging two recitals here.

ORCHESTRA TO CLOSE MUSICAL SEASON

Programme at Victoria High School on Saturday Evening Will Be Last of Winter's Serious Concerts

The musical season of 1923-24 is to pass with a flourish of trumpets. This in a literal sense, as well as figuratively, as the Victoria Orchestral Society, which is giving the final serious programme of the year in its recital at the Victoria High School on Saturday evening, has not only an unusually interesting selection of numbers to present, but a real trumpeter in its ranks. Mr. Drury Price, the conductor, with characteristic modesty, has said very little in the press about the forthcoming affair, but those who have heard the orchestra's previous recitals this season require no further guarantee of the quality of the entertainment.

At this recital Victoria will be introduced to a new violoncellist, who is coming here to live, Mr. Harold Taylor, who is advertised to give a group of 'cello numbers on the programme—Leon Boellman's "Symphonic Variations for Violoncello." Mr. Taylor is a product of one of the well-known London schools of music, but has been living in Portland for some years. Mrs. Jesse Longfield, the other soloist of the evening, is a favorite contralto who requires no introduction to Victorians. She is giving two groups on the programme, included in the first being a song by Mr. J. Douglas Macey, a local composer whose work is becoming widely known.

The orchestra will open the programme with the overture of Mozart's "Magic Flute," and their other numbers are Beethoven's big "Symphony No. 1 in C" (four movements) and Greig's suite, "Sigurd Jorsalfar," this last closing the programme.

The recital will begin at 8:15 p.m.

Pope Declares Holy Year

ROME, May 29.—Pope Pius today issued a bull proclaiming 1925 a holy year. The Pope besides granted the usual indulgences for the jubilee, prayers for real pacification of the world, for reunion of the churches dissenting from the Church of Rome, and for systematization of the edifices of Palestine according to Catholic rights.

Canadian Immigration

OTTAWA, May 29.—During April last 19,330 immigrants entered Canada, as against 9,500 in April, 1923, according to figures issued by the Department of Immigration today. Of those admitted last month, 9,410 were British, 1,838 were from the United States, and 8,082 from other countries.

HEAR EMPIRE ADDRESS

LANGFORD, May 29.—Mrs. Moss, O. B. E., of Cowichan, gave an address on "Our Duty to Our Empire" at the monthly meeting of the Langford Women's Institute. At the close of the address Mrs. J. L. Brown sang a solo entitled "For Home and Country," and dedicated to the Institute. The tea hostesses were Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Cowie. It was decided to hold a flower show on August 27.

A special meeting will be held at the home of Miss Savory on June 10 at 3 p.m. to hear the report of the delegates to the Vancouver Institute convention. Ladies of the district will be welcome.

The Love that never Dies

The Man We Forget

Many a man who cashes in a life insurance policy

—admits to himself that he could have saved twice as much,

—wonders what he did with the money that would have paid for more, and

—thinks he was wise in doing what he he did, because he hasn't saved much besides.

It does not always occur to him to thank the life insurance man for having induced him to save money.

Bad Legs Healed, at the age of 67.

Mrs. Greenwood, of 11, Stephen Fold, Sticker Lane, Dudley Hill, Bradford, England, writes: "It is eleven and a half years since my left leg first started, and what I have gone through with pain and loss of sleep, nobody but myself knows. I tried all sorts of lotions, plasters, and pastes, but it never healed. About 12 months ago my right leg also broke out, and altogether I had fifteen wounds on my legs. Then I bought a bottle of Clarke's Blood Mixture, and after taking seven bottles my legs were healed. I was 67 last November, so you see it is not the age that matters."

STOCKS FLUCTUATE IN NARROW LIMITS

Selling Pressure at Opening Carries Prices Downward, But Brisk Rally Features Closing

NEW YORK, May 29. — Stock prices fluctuated with a narrow limit in today's market, which was characterized by the usual pre-holiday dullness.

Prices drifted downward at the start when selling pressure was directed against the oil shares on unfavorable interpretation of production statistics and unconfirmed rumors of further price cuts. A brisk rally took place later, particularly in the Pan-American issues.

With the exception of American Can, which closed ⅜ lower at 102½, all the so-called pivotal stocks showed net gains at the close.

U. S. Steel common dipped below 95 and then rallied to 95½. Early heaviness on the independent steels were off on publication of trade advices from Pittsburg that the volume of steel buying has not decreased in the last thirty days and may possibly have increased slightly. Crucible closed nearly a point higher, and Bethlehem and Republic closed slightly lower.

Railroads Steady

Railroad shares showed little change on the day. Rubber issues recovered some of the recent losses on short covering.

Call money opened at 3 per cent and then eased to 2¾, which is the lowest it has been since March 21, 1924, when it closed at 2½ per cent.

The time money market also showed an easier tone with bids for the shorter maturities lower to 3⅝ per cent, although most of the business for loans up to ninety days was done on a 4 per cent basis. The commercial paper market was quiet, with no change in rates.

Foreign exchange rates turned reactionary in quiet trading. Demand sterling dropped about two cents to around $4.38¼ and French francs slipped five points just about 5¼c. Other European rates showed moderate recessions.

Bond Prices Drift

With bond prices drifting irregularly lower in today's desultory trading, chief interest in investment circles was attached to the ready absorption of new railroad bond offerings. The $35,000,000 Baltimore and Ohio 6's, and $7,734,000 New Orleans, Texas and Mexico 5½'s were sold shortly after subscription books were opened.

Extremely narrow price fluctuations marked dealings in most issues of the stock exchange. Liberty bonds were firm, the drop in call money to below 3 per cent, and the further ease in time funds stimulating employment of institutional funds. Buoyancy of the second and fourth 4¼'s reflect accumulation of these bonds for U.S. Government account.

FEATURELESS DAY ON WINNIPEG MARKETS

Market Maintains Strong Undertone, and Fluctuations Were Confined to Narrow Limits

WINNIPEG, May 22.—There was very little feature to today's wheat market with only a moderate trade passing, while the undertone continued strong. After opening unchanged to fractionally lower, prices fluctuated within narrow limits, but some buying by exporters and shippers on early recessions created strength at the close, which was about 1 cent higher for all three futures, with May relatively stronger than July and October.

GRAIN MARKET SHOWS SUBSTANTIAL TREND

Pit Conditions Favor Purchasers of Futures—Corn Scores Advance on Chicago Market

(By British-American Bond Corpn., Ltd.)

CHICAGO, May 29.—Grain markets today were surprisingly firm, especially towards the close. It was expected that some weakness might develop in the May deliveries, but nothing of any importance occurred in this respect. Weather conditions are nearly perfect, according to general reports, and there is very little complaint regarding the growing crop. Pit conditions, however, seem to favor the purchaser of futures. The trade is principally confined to the local and professional element, and this makes the trend rather difficult to determine. With May deliveries out of the way the position of the bull seems to be improved materially.

DUNWELL CONTINUES IN HIGH-GRADE ORE

Latest Report From Mine Shows Vein Is Maintaining its Uniformly Rich Character

Operating for months blocking out uniformly high-grade ore, the Dunwell Mine has come to be looked upon as one of the established properties in the Stewart camp. The encountering of a high-grade vein of ten feet in width in any other property would be regarded as something of a sensational character. In the case of the Dunwell, however, this is regarded as nothing but the expected.

A message received from the mine yesterday by the local office conveys the information that the latest cross cut through the ore body that is being followed on the north and south vein in number three level shows "ten feet of good solid ore composed of quartz, iron and galena."

The information, added to the previous history of this tunnel, shows that since the company started out to explore the ore body represented by this north-south vein the workings have been carried along 350 feet and that the character of the ore driving in both directions is of a uniformly high grade. To test out the body cross cuts have been made every fifty feet, showing the vein to have a width of from about six to twelve feet.

The information that has been received has had the effect of satisfying the management as to the permanency of the ore body and that the operations being carried out are according to the best principles of mining.

TRUSTEE CHEETHAM ADVISED TO RESIGN

Trustee J. Cheetham was advised to resign from the Saanich School Board at a committee meeting of Saanich Ward Four Association at Marigold Wednesday night. This recommendation was made after Mr. Cheetham had explained that he had taken up the question of school repair work with the board in the belief that it was costing far too much. In some cases he thought it was costing twice as much as it should, according to his personal checking of the work. When the board was unable to agree with him, Mr. Cheetham said, he had no recourse but to report so to his association. The committee endorsed the trustee's stand and advised him to resign in order to bring the matter to a head.

More than one-third of the world's production of turpentine is used in the United States.

Mine Management

We believe the most important thing in making for successful mining, apart from actual ore and location, is wise management. The directors of "LAKEVIEW," in securing the services of Mr. R. F. Hill, E.M. (an engineer who has met with real success in the North), have safeguarded shareholders against ill-advised operations, responsible for so many failures.

Mr. Hill leaves for Stewart on 29th inst. We can confidently look for rapid developments during June, July and August.

EMMA MAERSK IS FINE TRAMP SHIP

DANISH MOTORSHIP IS MODERN IN EVERY RESPECT

Coal Is Stranger to Vessel—Even Galley Stove Burns Oil as Fuel —Electric Winches

Spick and span from stem to stern, though a massive deckload of lumber now conceals the immaculacy of decks which will never be soiled with the grime of coal, unless she stoops to the humble work of collier, the Danish motorship Emma Maersk is undoubtedly one of the most modernly appointed tramps to touch here in many long moons.

The familiar rattle and roar of steam winches did not assail the ear with strident clatter yesterday afternoon as the huge beams and planks of Douglas fir were swung aboard. Instead there was the unassuming hum of electric motors, for all of the Emma's ten winches are electrically driven.

Coal—that most fecund source of dust and ashes, of soot and grime, in whose train more infernally heavy holystones have been wielded by sweating seamen than in any other cause—is an entire stranger aboard the dainty Emma Maersk.

Even the galley stove is fired with oil, aided and abetted by a mysterious electrical contrivance. Many an honest housewife would willingly jettison her laggard coal range for such a stove as Cook Larsen dominates on the Emma Maersk.

"In five minutes," he proudly told The Colonist yesterday, "I can make that stove red hot. Look!"

With that he rose from the task of annihilating a few temerarious grease spots on the tiled floor of the galley with soap and water, cast an appraising glance at the unmarred spotlessness, at the almost painful spotlessness of the floor, and opened a little valve in a pipe leading to the top of the range.

Instantly, with a sizzling sort of subdued roar, a sheet of flame belched from the nozzle inside and searched out every nook and cranny under the lids and over the ovens with a blast of searing heat.

The Colonist was convinced. Such a torch would melt the heart of a bucko mate on an Alaskan cannery windjammer.

In the engine-room all again was immaculacy—as far, that is to say, as it is possible for any room housing something which requires grease and oil to warrant that term. Nickel trimmings on two eleven hundred horsepower Diesels gleamed and shone, as though in secret pride at the knowledge that they could drive a 3,193-net-ton ship from Denmark to British Columbia at a cruising speed of 10 knots an hour. With further bright reflections of the sunbeams probing through the skylight a brass plate brazenly flaunted the name of their makers—Burmeister & Wain, Copenhagen.

Plebeian fir has found no place in the skipper's cabin, in his stateroom or in the officers' saloon; but rich mahogany and bird's-eye maple delight the eye.

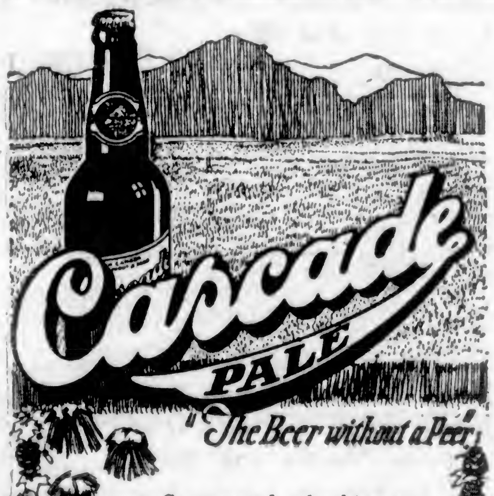

Relaxing on the velvet plush of a chair in the elegant saloon, Captain Moller, brother of the builder and owner of the Emma, discoursed on the comparative economies of steam and oil-burning vessels.

The Emma carries her fuel in ballast tanks, he pointed out, which otherwise would be filled with water. Thus space which is devoted to bunkers on a steamship is given over to cargo on the Emma Maersk. As the oil is emptied from the tanks "en voyage," water takes its place.

The absence of a boiler-room, Captain Moller observed, frees further space for the cargo.

At 6:30 o'clock the Emma will probably sail on a 50-day voyage to Capetown, the skipper said. Burning about seven tons of oil every 24 hours to maintain her speed of 10 knots per hour, fully loaded, the Emma will probably consume about 350 tons of fuel. Were she a steamship, burning 25 tons of coal a day, as she would probably do, she would have to leave Victoria with about 1,250 tons of coal in bunkers, he said. Thus, he said, the difference of 900 tons devoted to the freighting of cargo makes it infinitely more profitable for the oil-burner.

BUILD MOTORSHIPS IN ORIENT COUNTRY

Round-the-World Service Planned by Roosevelt and Japanese Lines Construct Vessels in Japan

Shipping men were advised yesterday that the Roosevelt Line and the K. K. Line, which is affiliated with the former, have let a contract to a firm in Japan for the construction of five motorships, to be used in the new around-the-world service planned by these concerns.

Already these companies, working together, have had a motorship built in British yards which is due in Baltimore early June. This ship is the Silver Elm, a 9,000-ton motorship, and will sail from New York in June for Japan by way of the Panama Canal.

The service of the new line will be from New York and other Atlantic ports to Balboa, thence to Japan, down the coast of China, via India and the Mediterranean Sea back to New York.

Recently Kermit Roosevelt was in Vancouver on his way to Japan to discuss this service with the Japanese affiliated line officials, but it was not until he reached Japan that the around-the-world service was determined on.

HOLLAND SHIPS PIG IRON TO U.S. PORTS

Dutch Interests Enter Pacific Coast Market in Competition With British, French and German Firms

Steamers arriving from European ports report carrying deadweight Dutch pig iron to United States ports on this coast.

This is the first time that Holland has come directly into competition with the blast furnaces of England, Scotland, Belgium, Germany and France.

During the war when Holland was unable to obtain its iron from Great Britain or Germany, the Dutch government approached some of the large interests and plans were formulated to build in Holland an absolutely modern blast furnace. The construction was entrusted to the Chicago firm of Freyn Brassort & Co.

The new furnace is located near Ymuiden on the canal between Amsterdam and the Black Sea and has a capacity of 300 tons daily. It was built near the ocean because the consumption of pig iron in Holland is light and it was necessary to export some of the production. Moreover ore from Spain, Sweden and North Africa may be discharged at the furnace with small cost, an important factor in the production of cheap iron.

MAY REMOVE RATES UNFAIR TO COAST

Imperial Committee May Hasten Removal of Discriminatory Marine Insurance Rates for B.C. Ports

OTTAWA, May 29.—Prospects for the removal of the discrimination against Canadian ports in the marine insurance underwritten by Lloyd's and British firms are brightening.

With the return to London of the two members of the Imperial Shipping Committee, of which Sir Halford Mackinder is chairman, from a tour of this country, a communication was received by Sir Halford, from Hon. Arthur Cardin, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, reminding him of the urgency of this question, which had not been officially referred to the committee to deal with while in Canada.

In reply Sir Halford has written to the Canadian Minister informing him that while they were not properly authorized to take representations on the marine question, they did receive evidence from the Boards of Trade of Halifax, St. John and Quebec and from other organizations in Montreal, Toronto and Winnipeg, urging that steps be taken with a view to removing the discrimination.

OLD WARSHIP BIDS SEATTLE FAREWELL

SEATTLE, May 29.—In tow of the north pole discovery ship Roosevelt, now a Seattle tug, the famous old battleship Connecticut, flagship of the American battle fleet, which made a cruise around the world in 1908, left Seattle Harbor for the last time at 6:30 o'clock yesterday morning.

The old fighting ship is bound for San Francisco, where she will be junked by the Union Construction Company, which purchased her from the United States Navy six months ago. After the removal of her big guns and other fighting equipment, the Connecticut was towed from the Naval Station, Puget Sound, to Seattle early this year, and was moored at the Duthie plant on the East Waterway.

The Time used is Pacific Standard, for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight. The figures for height serve to distinguish High Water from Low Water. Where blanks occur in the tables, the tide rises or falls continuously during two successive tidal periods without turning.

The Height is in feet and tenths of a foot, above the average level of lower Low Water. Esquimalt—To find the depth of water on the sill of the drydock at any time, add 18.9 feet to the height of High Water as above given.

Gas-Boat Ashore Causes Rumor of Wreck to Arise

Rumors circulating along the waterfront yesterday to the effect that a deep-sea vessel had gone ashore near Sherringham Point were set at rest yesterday afternoon by the announcement from the Pacific Salvage Company that a gasboat had stranded in that vicinity.

RULES DAVIS RAFT A DISTINCT ENTITY

Mr. Justice McDonald Settles Point of Great Importance to Towing and to Insurance Interests

VANCOUVER, May 29.—A Davis raft is a distinct entity, according to Mr. Justice D. A. McDonald, who today awarded Morrison Mill Company, of Anacortes, judgment in the sum of $3,395 against the Queen Insurance Company of America. The judgment is based on a policy by which the defendant company insured the Morrison Mill Company against loss of a Davis raft between Cumshewa, Queen Charlotte Islands, and Anacortes. While in tow of the tug Imbricaria the raft broke up, October 23 last, in Hecate Strait. A portion of the raft was subsequently recovered and delivered at the mill.

The point, important to towing and insurance interests, was whether a Davis raft, like a ship, could be subject to constructive total loss; or whether, like a boom of logs, some of which were subsequently recovered, a partial loss would occur.

Mr. Justice McDonald pointed out that what was insured was a deep-sea raft built by T. A. Kelly & Company. It was an intact mass, supposed to stand the weather. There was a constructive total loss of the entity, and the plaintiff was entitled to recover.

Along the Waterfront

The Italian freighter Gertie sailed for Comox from Esquimalt at 6 o'clock yesterday evening. After coaling at the island port the Gertie will proceed to Vancouver where she will load grain for Europe.

The Canadian Government Merchant Marine vessel Canadian Prospector, which is due here tomorrow from the Orient will be drydocked at Esquimalt for cleaning and painting by the Victoria Machinery Depot.

A Japanese deportee, M. Fukuoka, leaped from the rail of the Iyo Maru as the vessel was backing out from the Rithet Consolidated piers Wednesday night en route to Japan, and was only rescued by the pilot launch in the nick of time. His intention was to make his way back to the United States.

SHIP RUSHES PLANE FOR BRITISH PILOT

TOKIO, May 29.—The U. S. S. Paul Jones will leave Yokohama today to take on a Vickers plane at Hakodate for transportation as fast as possible to A. S. MacLaren, the British flyer, who has cabled requesting same.

The Americans are busy overhauling their machines. The weather permitting, they intend to fly from Kasumigaura to Kagoshima without a stop. No Japanese plane has yet attempted this distance.

U.S. VICE-CONSUL IS PLACED UNDER ARREST

American Official Charged at Washington With Aiding Smuggling of Chinese Across Border

WASHINGTON, May 29.—David C. Kerr, United States vice-consul at Vancouver, was arrested here today on a charge of having accepted bribes to influence his decisions on questions relating to the passage of aliens across the Canadian border. Kerr, who is on detached duty here, pleaded not guilty before a United States commissioner, and was released on bonds.

The charge was made by the district attorney's office on behalf of Edward J. Norton, consul-general at large.

John S. Zurbrick and J. Fred Sanders, of the United States immigration staff at Vancouver, were named as witnesses.

Kerr surrendered voluntarily when he learned that the authorities were seeking him. The charges are said to involve the passage of Chinese coolies across the border.
